In order to be considered for the Composing for Visual Media Program, the following is required:

1. Audio examples of three (3) compositions that you have created and recorded. Please explain your involvement in written detail.

2. A description in 150 words or less of your computer skills and prior studio/music experience. Please provide your description as an additional document on your online admissions application.