In order to be considered for the Music Production Program, the following is required:

1. Audio examples of three (3) studio-produced tracks that you have been involved with: either as a producer, engineer, artist or writer. Please explain your involvement in written detail.

2. A description in 150 words or less of your computer skills and prior studio experience. Please provide your description as an additional document on your online admissions application.