GETTING STARTED
Ask the key questions and find available resources

There are many housing options in Pasadena and the surrounding communities, and this guidebook can help you find the one that is right for you.

Getting started, you will want to ask yourself:
- What type of housing do you want: an apartment, room, or a house?
- What location is best for you?
- Do you want to be within walking or biking distance of the campus?
- Do you want to be on a bus or train route?
- Do you need to find roommates?
- What is your budget?

HOW DOES LACM HOUSING WORK?
LACM’s housing department makes every effort to help make your transition to Pasadena as easy as possible. We can help you find off-campus housing and/or roommates. Housing Advisors can introduce you to a variety of resources in the LACM Housing Network.

The LACM Housing Network:
- The Roommate Connection List
- Roommate Meet Ups
- Housing Option List

Sign up for the Roommate Connection List (RCL)
The RCL is a listing of new and current LACM students looking for roommates and/or apartments. If you are seeking off-campus housing and/or roommates, get on the list! The latest copy of the list is sent via e-mail mostly in the weeks prior to the start of the Fall and Spring quarters but also throughout the term provided new people signed up. You can contact whomever you feel is well-suited as a roommate.

To get on the list, fill out and submit the Roommate Connection Form. Turn in your form as soon as possible and be sure to do it before the deadline. (Deadlines on page 12)

Come to the Roommate Meet-Ups!
We recommend that everyone on the RCL attend these meet-ups. There is one meet-up held on-campus prior to the start of the Fall and Spring quarters, so consider arriving in Pasadena a few weeks before the quarter begins. These gatherings are optional but very helpful. You can meet potential roommates from the RCL, check out current vacancies and get more information on how to find your apartment together.

Housing Options List
The Housing Options List provides rent averages by area and also provides specific rental listings. The descriptions highlight areas of Pasadena and the surrounding communities. (Listing on page 7)
LACM is located in Pasadena

The city of Pasadena is located ten miles northeast of downtown Los Angeles. Pasadena has many rental options in different neighborhoods including many that are within walking or biking distance from the campus.

Rental markets around the LACM campus offer a wide range of options, including apartments, houses/condos for rent, and rooms in homes. Amenities and prices vary by area and type of rental.

Although Pasadena is best known as the host of the annual Tournament of Roses Parade and Rose Bowl football game, the city also boasts numerous cultural amenities, fine restaurants and top retailers.

What are rents like in Pasadena?

- Studios $900*+
- One-bedroom $1,200*+
- Two-bedrooms $1,500*+

* These are low-end rent prices in buildings close to school.

A number of buildings and newer developments will have slightly higher rents

Surrounding Areas

If you venture out into surrounding areas such as South Pasadena, Alhambra, East Pasadena, or Altadena, rents are likely to be less expensive.

4 Tips to Becoming a Successful Renter

Once you have found a place to live, there are a few things you should know to make your rental experience a good one. Check out these tips on becoming a successful renter.

1. [Prepare]

If Possible, Plan to Arrive in Pasadena a Few Weeks Before the Quarter Starts. The process of finding an apartment can take time. Many buildings require an application process that will look at your credit score (U.S. students), employment history and sources of income. If your financial support is from your parents or financial aid, you will need to show supporting documentation. Some buildings will want your parents (or someone with good credit) to co-sign the lease; others strongly prefer to not have a co-signer.

International Students

Many apartments will require a credit check, which you will not be able to provide since only U.S. residents with a social security number have credit. Most apartments, though, will not have a problem as long as you provide a financial statement as proof of income.

2. [Know What You’re Getting Into]

Read Your Lease Agreement before you sign it! If you do not agree with the lease, try to negotiate a change. Leases are binding legal contracts – do not sign unless you feel comfortable.

Before You Move In, Do a Walk-Through with the manager and note any damage in the unit, otherwise they may hold you accountable and deduct the repair cost from your deposit. Being thorough now will save you money later.

Be Aware of Your Rights and Responsibilities as a tenant. The Department of Consumer Affairs is a government body concerned with protecting the rights of consumers. Visit the DCA website at www.dca.ca.gov to familiarize yourself with the legal policies concerning tenants and landlords.

Moving Out – Inform the manager if you or any roommate is leaving. If you leave before the lease is up, you will need to give a 30-day written notice. Be sure to clean the apartment and talk to the manager about damages. By law, your deposit must be returned within 21 days (minus any damage charges). Make sure to contact the utility companies in advance with your new address. Do not forget to notify the school office of your new address.

3. [Make a Budget and Stick to It]

Itemize Your Monthly Expenses to ensure that your financial resources will cover all of your expenses. Once you establish a budget and know how much you have to spend on things like food, gas, and entertainment, you might want to keep a log of your purchases to make sure you are spending within your budget.

Also, Always Be Sure to Ask About What Utilities Are Included in the rent, since this can vary. Most traditional apartment buildings will include water, refuse (outgoing water) and trash. You will need to establish electricity and gas in the name of one of the roommates. The utility companies will run a credit check, and you may need to give a deposit. Remember that it may take a few days to establish service. Home telephone service is optional and we have found that many students prefer to just use their own cell phone.

4. [Work Together to Be Great Roommates]

Have a Discussion Before You Move In

Often, problems with roommates come up because household rules were not established. Thus, you should establish an agreement with the roommate(s). By doing this, you will ensure your living habits are compatible.

Coordinate a Roommate Agreement that outlines shared responsibilities including costs, cleaning, cooking and sharing space and belongings and other “apartment rules”. After creating apartment rules, you should each be expected to uphold the guidelines. If your roommate is no longer following the agreement that you established together, promptly discuss the problems and find a solution.
Campus and Community Resources

BIKE PARKING ON CAMPUS

High gas prices, expensive car payments, traffic delays…
There are many great reasons to consider traveling to campus by bicycle. It's an effective, healthy, inexpensive, and fun alternative that is attracting more and more commuters.

Free on-campus bicycle parking is available at LACM. Please register your bike at Student Entrance and get a parking sticker ID/permit. Bike must show parking sticker ID/permit at all times.

Safety first! ALWAYS wear a helmet no matter how short the ride. Make sure your bicycle has reflectors for the front, back and sides.

OFF-CAMPUS PARKING

Due to extremely limited parking, student parking at LACM is only available through public parking off-campus.

Good options for off-campus parking are:
1. Free street parking (please observe posted parking laws).
2. The Del Mar Station Parking Garage.

THE DEL MAR STATION PARKING GARAGE

If you have questions about operations and/or monthly parking passes, contact Modern Parking Inc. 371 E. Green St. P101 Pasadena, CA 91101 (626) 817-0827

You can purchase daily/hourly parking passes at the garage:
1 hour/$2
2 hour/$4
All day/$6
1 Month/$50 + $25 deposit for parking key card.

Garage Location:

Pasadena, CA 91105
(2 blocks away from LACM)
