THE LACM EXPERIENCE

LACM's approach to music education is distinct. The Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Arts, Associate of Arts and Diploma programs at LACM prepare graduates to be leaders of the music industry, and provide unique opportunities for experiential and applied learning with not only peers, but with music industry professionals. LACM's faculty members are accomplished and highly-skilled musicians, producers, composers and businesspeople with a passion for inspiring the next generation. A 3:1 student-to-teacher ratio allows for small class sizes and quality teacher-student interaction.

The curriculum of each program is dynamic. Courses are regularly evaluated and updated in order to make sure students receive the most relevant information. Course material is supplemented by clinics, special appearances, visiting faculty, and artists in residence – creating an immersive learning experience that is both challenging and inspiring to students.

LACM is located at the center of historic “Old Pasadena,” a culturally thriving city known for its active artistic community. Just minutes from Hollywood and downtown Los Angeles, LACM's Pasadena location provides access to the music and entertainment industries, allowing LACM's Career Center to organize exclusive job, internship and audition opportunities for LACM students and alumni.

The student body is composed of students from around the world, who bring with them diverse cultural backgrounds and musical styles. Together they collaborate in a supportive environment in order to learn and grow creatively. LACM students graduate prepared to compose, produce, perform, record, and market music in a constantly evolving industry.

LACM is a nationally accredited college, licensed facility, and is certified by the Student & Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) for the enrollment of international students.

CAMPUS HISTORY & DETAILS

LACM first opened in Fall of 1996 and has been effectively serving the music education community ever since. The LACM South campus was originally built in the 1940's as a school for NASA scientist's learning to construct satellites. A press release announcing the first U.S. moonwalk was derived from an office within the South Campus.

LACM facilities include large and modern classrooms equipped with Mackie sound systems. Yamaha drum kits, Zildjian cymbals, Tech 21 and Fender guitar amps, and Gallien-Krueger bass amps are included in the performance classrooms.

The South Campus Recording Studio (201) includes Pro Tools HD with C124 Control Surface, Logic X 10, Cubase and a Dynaudio BM12 monitoring system, as well as three iso-booths and a neighboring drum room.

The Garage Recording Studio, which is located on the North Campus, includes Pro Tools HD (80 inputs & outputs) and a 32-Fader D-Control board. The studio also includes vintage and modern recording equipment by API, Cartec, dbx, Empirical Labs, Eventide, Great River, Kush

Audio, Little Labs, Manley, Mercury, Neve, Studer, UREI, tc electronic, etc. Vintage and modern microphones by AEA, Blue, ElectroVoice, Mojave, Neumann, Royer, Sennheiser, Shure, Telefunken, etc. Vintage and Modern Synthesizers by Moog, Roland, Oberheim, Waldorf, etc. The studio also includes an arsenal of software plug-ins & virtual instruments including those by AudioEase, Celemony, Crane Song, FabFilter, Kush Audio, Native Instruments, Slate Digital, Softube, SoundToys, Waves, etc.

The Garage Computer Lab (301) is outfitted with seventeen 20" iMacs® and a 52" LCD monitor for instructor demonstrations. The workstations include a MIDI controller, Pro Tools, Logic, Sibelius, EastWest orchestra library, Native Instruments Komplete 9 Ultimate, Celemony Melodyne, Softube plugins, etc.

A number of Whisper Room Workstations are available as private practice labs or recording workstations and include latest generation iMacs® with KRK Systems monitors, MIDI controller, and Pro Tools, Logic, Sibelius, EastWest orchestra library, Native Instruments Komplete 9 Ultimate, Celemony Melodyne, Softube plugins etc.

Fully-equipped practice labs are designated for drummers. Additional practice labs and several practice stations are designated for guitarists, bassists, and vocalists. The LACM Performance Hall holds an audience of approximately 160 and features a large stage that can fit up to 25 players.

LACM DIPLOMA

The Diploma program is 4 quarters (1 calendar year) in length for full-time students. Within the diploma program students may choose to major in Music Performance, specializing in Guitar, Bass, Drums, Vocal, and Brass & Woodwinds. Students also have the opportunity to major in Music Production specializing in Music Producing & Recording or Composing for Visual Media, or in Composition specializing in Songwriting.

LACM ASSOCIATE OF ARTS

The Associate degree is an occupational degree and is 6 quarters (1.5 calendar years) in length for full-time students. The Associate degree develops relevant skills in all facets of the music industry. Students may major in Music Performance, specializing in Guitar, Bass, Drums, Vocal, and Brass & Woodwinds. Students also have the opportunity to major in Music Production specializing in Music Producing & Recording or Composing for Visual Media, in Composition specializing in Songwriting, or in Music Industry specializing in Music Business.

LACM BACHELOR OF MUSIC

The Bachelor of Music program is 12 quarters (3.5 calendar years) in length for full-time students. The Bachelor of Music program allows for students to further develop existing skills and provides an accelerated focus toward professional musicianship and provides an accelerated focus towards the skill sets required for a career in music. The Bachelor of Music is a direct continuation of the Associate degree but also includes well-balanced general education classes. Within the Bachelor of Music program students can major in Music Performance and Music Production, with specializations in Guitar, Bass, Drums, Vocal, Brass & Woodwinds, and Music Producing & Recording.

LACM BACHELOR OF ARTS

LACM offers a Bachelor of Arts degree majoring in Music Industry specializing in Music Business. The program is 12 quarters (3.5 calendar years) in length for full-time students. The curriculum offers relevant coursework in music business empowering students to be entrepreneurial and adapt to an ever-changing business model. Course work includes well-balanced general education classes and is enhanced by extensive hands-on business practicums and internships with major entertainment companies in Los Angeles.

LACM ONLINE

For prospective students who want to learn from LACM's instructors but are unable to attend classes on campus, LACM offers educational certificates and courses through LACM Online.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES — DOMESTIC & INTERNATIONAL

Admission to LACM requires an online application and digital audition submitted at www.lacm.edu.

Required Admission Materials

- Online admissions application with the $100 application fee
- Music Performance and Music Business applicants should submit a video demo performing the minimum entry requirements; Music Production applicants should submit audio only.
- Official high school, GED, or college transcripts showing a cumulative 2.5 GPA. Applicants with a lower GPA are still encouraged to apply; LACM utilizes a comprehensive review process.
- Personal Statement (All Bachelor of Music candidates and All Music Business program applicants only) addressing required essay topic(s). Enrollment Agreement
- Letter of Recommendation from an academic or music professional. (e.g. Music Instructor, Choir or Band Director, etc.)
- International applicants only: Proof of English proficiency.

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

All international applicants must demonstrate proficiency in English by submitting an official score from at least one of the following tests:

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL iBT): Minimum score 70

International English Language Testing System (IELTS): Minimum score 6

Scores may not be more than two years old at the time of application to LACM.

Students are exempt from the English proficiency test requirement if they meet at least one of the following criteria:

- The student is a citizen or permanent resident of one or more of the following countries: Australia, Belize, the British Caribbean and British West Indies, Canada (except Quebec), Guyana, Ireland, Liberia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Scotland, the United Kingdom, or the United States.
- The student has a degree from an institution where the primary language of instruction and evaluation is English. LACM will verify the institution through the International Handbook of Universities, published and edited by IAU/ UNESCO. Additional information may be requested from the applicant's university registrar to verify that the instruction was conducted in English.

ADMISSIONS PROCESS

Applications will be evaluated within 15-21 business days. Acceptance is based on fulfillment of LACM's admission requirements and level of musical ability. Admissions decisions are released via email.

Acceptance Packet Materials

The new student welcome packet contains:

- Acceptance Letter
- Tuition & Aid Deadlines
- New Student Checklist(s)
- Housing & Roommate Connection Packet
- Enrollment Agreement
- School Performance Fact Sheet
- LACM School Catalog

To Enroll:

- Fill out and return a completed enrollment agreement to Admissions via mail at 300 S. Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena, CA 91105, or email to admissions@lacm.edu to officially accept the offer of admission.
- Arrange payment for 1st quarter tuition.
- Enrollment for international students is provisional until all required documents are received (i.e. Student Visa Verification)

INSTITUTIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

LACM offers merit-based institutional scholarships. Institutional scholarships are awarded to both domestic and international students demonstrating exceptional musical potential determined by the Scholarship Committee. Candidates are evaluated based on transcripts, letters of recommendation, an essay, and an overall assessment of personal musicality. LACM does not discriminate against ethnicity, gender, religion, national origin, disability, age, or sexual orientation. If a student is awarded an LACM scholarship, the award amount will be applied directly to tuition and divided over the course of the program. To maintain a scholarship award, students must achieve a 3.2 cumulative GPA. If a student does not achieve a cumulative 3.2 GPA the scholarship will be cancelled. Once the student is able to regain a 3.2 cumulative GPA the scholarship will be reinstated. Students may only apply for scholarships during the application process. To learn more about how to apply for scholarships, contact the Office of Admissions.

INSTITUTIONAL GRANTS

LACM offers need-based institutional grants. Institutional grants are awarded to both domestic and international students demonstrating hardship requiring financial need. Candidates are evaluated based on a letter of intent and proof of need for financial assistance to attend LACM. LACM does not discriminate against ethnicity, gender, religion, national origin, disability, age, or sexual orientation. If a student is awarded a need-based grant, the award amount will be applied directly to the student's account. To maintain an institutional grant, students must achieve a 3.0 cumulative GPA. If a student does not achieve a cumulative 3.0 GPA the need-based grant will be cancelled. Once the student is able to regain a 3.0 cumulative GPA the need-based grant will be reinstated. Students may only apply for need-based grants during Week 1 of a quarter for eligibility in the subsequent quarter. To learn more about how to apply for need-based grants, contact the Office of Admissions.

HOUSING

LACM is located in Pasadena, California adjacent to numerous apartment buildings, condominiums, and homes with convenient rental offerings. An average 1 bedroom apartment costs $1,200/month. LACM's Roommate Connection List helps students to connect with potential roommates before they start their first quarter, and LACM Admissions Counselors are helpful in assisting incoming students in their search for affordable housing. Roommate meet-ups are scheduled prior to each quarter's start date to enable students to meet classmates ahead of time and make housing arrangements. For International Students, LACM recommends trusted partner IHPS Homestays for affordable home placements. The placement program offers options for meals and provides a room in a home with a local host family.

OPTIONAL DISCLOSURE

Student health, academic, and financial information records are considered confidential and will not be released without written permission unless there is an emergency situation. If a student wishes to have records released to parents or other parties, the student must sign a disclosure form in order for LACM to release the records. An "optional disclosure" section is included in the Application for Admission.

RETURNING TO LACM

If a student has withdrawn and not re-enrolled within one year, the student must reapply through the Office of Admissions.

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION

All courses at LACM are instructed in American English. It is advised for all students to be fluent in the English language for successful study and completion of a chosen degree program.

TUITION

LACM tuition covers required core curriculum in a specific program and LACM texts for $7,901.25 per quarter. Tuition for domestic and international students is due one quarter (11 weeks) prior to the student's start date. Students returning to LACM have a tuition deadline of 6 weeks prior to the start date of the next quarter.

Quarterly Tuition:	$7,901.25
Student Activity Fee:	100.00
LACM Textbook Fee:	300.00
Total:	$8,301.25

- Total program cost
(including all fees, charges, and services)
Bachelor of Music & Arts program (12 quarters): $99,615.00
- Total program cost
(including all fees, charges, and services)
Associate of Arts program
(6 quarters): $49,807.50
- Total program cost
(including all fees, charges, and services)
Diploma program
(4 quarters) is: $33,205.00

LACM tuition includes all full-time students, (12-19 units). If a student falls below 12 units, or exceeds 19 units in one quarter, they will pay by the unit, which is calculated by dividing their quarterly tuition by 12, which is $658.44. If a full-time student retakes a course or an elective, the cost is $150 per course. Half-time and less than half-time students must pay the per credit cost to retake the course or elective. Students can request an additional private lesson with an instructor on any topic, and will be charged per credit (5 one-hour lessons per quarter). Students are responsible for the total program cost of their program. If financial aid loans are taken, the student is responsible for repaying the loan amount and any accrued interest.

FEES

Application Fee: Initial $100.00 to apply to LACM

Student Activity Fee: Student activity fees cover the student ID, graduation ceremony tickets for the student and one guest, annual memberships to Grammy U., campus clinics, parties, and other student events. The student activity fee is $100.00 per quarter.

LACM Textbook Fee: The LACM Textbook Fee of $300 covers LACM instructor copy-written curricula. Additional texts and supplemental learning materials may be selected by an instructor to enhance coursework. All books covered under the LACM textbook fee are available for download on LACM's learning management system (Populi). Bachelor student general education textbooks are not included in the LACM textbook fee.

LATE FEES

Late Registration Fee: Students who do not complete quarterly registration forms on time during registration periods will be charged $50.00 for late registration processing.

Late Tuition Fee: Late tuition fees will be applied to student accounts who do not meet tuition deadlines. Once the Tuition Deadline has passed, students will be charged $100.00 per week for each week past the deadline until the balance is paid. Students have until the eighth week of classes to pay their tuition in full.

ENROLLMENT CANCELLATION

All students have the right to cancel enrollment agreements in writing to: LACM at 370 S. Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena, California 91105, or registrar@lacm.edu. If LACM receives notice of cancellation by the end of the first week of classes, students have the right to a refund of all refundable fees paid and are not subject to any penalties or obligations. All refunds will be processed within 45 days of cancellation. If cancellation occurs after the first week of classes the student may be required to pay for a portion of tuition.

REFUNDS

Student activity fees will also be refunded if cancellation occurs by the end of the first week of classes. Partial tuition refunds can be given between weeks two through seven. After week seven, students will not be able to receive any refunds. If overpayment of tuition occurs or a student receives excess funds from financial aid, the student will have credit on their LACM account. The student will be notified about this account credit and how to use it.

TUITION REFUND POLICY

Week 1: 100% refund

Week 2: 81% refund

Week 3: 72% refund

Week 4: 63% refund

Week 5: 53% refund

Week 6: 44% refund

Week 7: Tuition is no longer refundable

The student has the right to cancel and receive a refund. Cancellation is effective the date LACM receives a written cancellation notice. LACM delivers the full amount of refunds within 45 days of the written cancellation notice.

PAYMENT METHODS

Tuition and fees must be paid in United States currency. Payments can be made via personal check, wire transfer, credit or debit card, or cash. LACM accepts Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover.

Check payments must be made out to: Los Angeles College of Music, 370 S. Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena, CA 91105. Receipts will be mailed, emailed, or given in-person at the time of payment.

PAYMENT PLANS

LACM maintains a monthly payment program allowing students to make monthly payments for tuition and fees. The payment program is interest-free and is calculated to pay off each term's charges during and by the end of each academic quarter.

NON-PAYMENT DROP POLICY

If a student fails to pay tuition in full by the week eight deadline, the student will be automatically dropped from all upcoming quarter classes. Once payment is received, the student will be reinstated in all their courses.

STUDENT FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Registration for any term at LACM signifies agreement to pay all charges incurred during the specific term. It is important for students to realize the responsibility for paying all charges incurred while attending LACM including tuition, student loans, fees, etc. Payment plans are available for students who need assistance.

ESTIMATED COST OF ATTENDANCE

The Cost of Attendance Budget Chart reflects estimated enrollment costs per Quarter.

2015-2016 AVERAGE COST OF ATTENDANCE BUDGET PER QUARTER

	Dependent Students	Independent Students
Tuition	$7,901.25	$7,901.25
Books & Supplies	$200.00	$200.00
Student Activity Fee	$100.00	$100.00
Room & Board	$1,209.00	$3,132.00
Transportation	$987.00	$987.00
Personal	$897.00	$1,683.00
Total	$11,294.25	$14,003.25

TEMPORARY FINANCIAL SUSPENSION

Insufficient payment for an upcoming quarter will lead to a temporary financial suspension and the inability to attend classes as scheduled.

LACM FINANCIAL STATUS

LACM does not have any pending petitions in bankruptcy. LACM is not operating as a debtor in possession. LACM has not filed a petition within the preceding five years and has not had any bankruptcy filed against the college within the preceding five years resulting in reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. Sec. 1101 et seq.).

FINANCIAL AID

LACM provides equal opportunity to all students. LACM participates in the U.S. government Title IV program for Federal Student Aid consisting of various grant and loan opportunities. To be eligible, students must enroll in one of LACM's programs and be diligent regarding previous student loans. Students will not be considered for loans if there is default on previous federal student loans or exceeded annual/aggregate student aid loan limits for a particular academic year.

APPLYING FOR FINANCIAL AID

If a student is seeking financial assistance, completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) begins the process. This can be done via the internet at www.fafsa.ed.gov. In order to submit an online application, students must first apply for a PIN to use as an electronic signature (parents of dependent students must also apply for a PIN). After receiving a PIN, students and parents can go to the website to complete the FAFSA, entering LACM's School Code: 038684. Applying 4 months prior to the intended program start date is advised. Applicants are strongly encouraged to apply as early as possible to ensure timely processing. Renewals should occur annually as soon as possible after January 1st.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Federal Student Aid is based on financial need with the exception of certain federal loan programs. Financial need is calculated and determined by the following federally mandated formula:

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Cost of Attendance} \\ - \text{Expected Family Contribution} \\ \hline = \text{Financial Need} \end{array}$$

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is a projection of funds determined to be available for the cost of attendance and other financial obligations.

Students are eligible to apply for financial aid if they have:

- Enrollment in an eligible educational program
- A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) completed

- U.S. citizenship or eligibility as a non-citizen
- Valid & non-delinquent U.S. tax information
- A valid Social Security Number
- A High-school or General Education Diploma
- Compliance with Selective Service registration
- No defaults on previous education loans
- No balance or refund from previous federal grants at any post-secondary institution
- Satisfactory Academic Progress

The US Department of Education conducts database matches to determine whether a student meets certain eligibility criteria for financial aid. The result of these matches will appear on your Student Aid Report (SAR). These include matches with: Selective Service, National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), and Social Security Administration (SSA). LACM will only disburse financial aid if a student successfully passes all database matches. If there is failure of any database matches, LACM cannot disburse ANY type of financial aid until the status from these matches has been confirmed and resolved. Failure to resolve any conflicting database matches during the federally required time frame will result in cancellation of estimated financial aid awards.

FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

GRANTS

Federal Pell Grant: A Pell Grant is a federal need-based grant program. Award amounts depend on appropriations by Congress, student eligibility, and the student's level of enrollment. Check with the Financial Aid Office for more information.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG): FSEOG is a need-based grant awarded to undergraduate students with financial need in regard to possessing the lowest Expected Family Contribution (EFC) amount. Pell eligible students who meet institutional application deadlines are given priority for receiving FSEOG awards. Anyone not Pell eligible but with low EFC's who also meets application deadlines will be in the next group considered for receiving an FSEOG award.

LOANS

Direct Stafford Loan Program: Offers subsidized and unsubsidized loans with low fixed interest rates set by July 1st of each year. These loans are financed by the US Department of Education. Subsidized Direct Stafford Loans: Offers loans for anyone who illustrates financial need. The interest accrued on these loans is paid by the U.S Department of Education while you are enrolled in school.

Unsubsidized Direct Stafford Loans: Offers loans available regardless of income; however, accrued interest begins on these loans the moment the loan is disbursed. Interest amounts must be paid until the loan payments are finalized.

Direct PLUS Loans: The Direct Plus Loan allows the parent of a “dependent” student to apply for an educational loan on behalf of their child. These loans are not need-based. Approval is determined by credit history. Parents who are eligible may borrow up to the cost of attendance. Please refer to The Guide to Federal Student Aid for more detailed information about financial programs. The guide also addresses loan repayment terms, student rights and responsibilities, and other pertinent financial aid information.

Private Loan Programs: Private loans are alternative and strictly based on credit and income. Private loans are not guaranteed by the federal government. Depending on the lending institution, each alternative loan may have varying terms and conditions. Private loan terms and conditions are typically at an increase higher than federal student aid loan programs. LACM recommends anyone interested in alternative loan programs fully research the loan options and the consistency of the overall terms and conditions throughout the entirety of the loan. Veterans’ Benefits

VETERANS BENEFITS

Approved by California State Approving Agency for Veterans Education (CSAAVE): LACM is approved by the California State Approving Agency for Veterans Education (CSAAVE) to enroll veterans and eligible persons for education benefits. Students who believe they qualify for veterans’ educational benefits should contact the College Veterans’ Benefits Coordinator. Discharged veterans may be required to submit a clear copy of their discharge papers (DD214) for their files. All veterans, including those on active duty, should call the Department of Veterans Affairs at (888) 442-4551 to obtain the appropriate application for benefits (such as letter of eligibility). Information and forms are also available online at www.gibill.va.gov. For more information, contact Mary Olmos, School Certifying Official 626-568-8850 ext. 207, veterans@lacm.edu.

PROCESSING PROCEDURES

Financial aid applications will be processed in the order received. Submitting the application by LACM’s stated deadlines is essential to have timely processing. Only complete files containing the required documentation will be processed. A financial aid file is complete only after the following documents and information have been received:

- Confirmation of Admission status in an eligible program.
- A valid FAFSA containing LACM’s federal school code 038684 (LA Music Academy).
- Any other documentation requested by the Financial Aid Office required for completion of the verification process. Financial aid awards are for one academic year and it is the responsibility of the student to re-apply each year if additional aid is needed.

Notice to Recipients of Federal Grants and Loans The Higher Education Amendment of 1998 requires continued eligibility for federal grants and loans to be based on a student’s satisfactory academic progress and successful completion of the studied program. If a student withdraws from school, the amount of financial aid available to pay expenses will be prorated based on the amount of time spent in attendance (If the student has completed 60% or less of the quarter. LACM must return excess funds to Title IV programs in the sequence required by the U. S. Department of Education. Students should be aware of the remaining responsibility for all appropriate charges not covered by Federal Student Aid due to withdrawal.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP) POLICY FOR FINANCIAL AID

In order to be eligible to receive federal financial aid, students at LACM must demonstrate "Satisfactory Academic Progress" (SAP) which is a function of the following three components:

- 1). The student can regain eligibility for FSA funds if minimum standards are met. All students receiving financial aid must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA every quarter.
- 2). Incremental Completion Rate (ICR): All students at LACM who receive financial aid must stay on pace to graduate on time. Pace is calculated by dividing the total credits a student completed per quarter by the number of credits they have attempted per quarter. When this calculation falls below 67%, a student is no longer on pace to graduate on time and is ineligible to receive financial aid.
- 3). Maximum Time Frame (150% Rule): An eligible student can receive federal financial aid while attempting up to, but not exceeding, 150% of the LACM's completion length.

Federal regulations require that all students who receive financial aid maintain satisfactory academic progress.

The Financial Aid Office will review each student's record at the end of each quarter. Students who do not meet Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements at the end of their first quarter will be notified by the Registrar Office and the Financial Aid Office that they have been placed in Academic Dismissal with an option to appeal.

Appeal: If the student appeals the academic dismissal and the appeal is approved the student will be placed on probation.

Probation: If while on probation the students fail to meet SAP their financial aid will be cancelled and the student will be Academically Suspended.

Academically Suspended: Students may reinstate eligibility by complying with Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards in a quarter without receiving Financial Aid if approved by the Dean. Students should complete their educational objective within a maximum time frame of 150%.

Evaluation Process

The GPA, Pace and Maximum Time Frame requirements are evaluated by the Financial Aid Office after every quarter (Summer/Fall/Winter, and Spring), once grades are posted. A student who does not meet the GPA, Pace, or Maximum Time Frame requirement(s) will need to meet with financial aid and the academic advisor.

Appeal Process

A student who did not meet SAP for financial aid and is currently ineligible to receive financial aid may appeal for reinstatement of eligibility by completing an Appeal Form. Additional supporting documentation confirming the appealed situation may also be required. Additionally, appeals must also include an academic plan. If the appeal is approved, the student is subsequently placed on Financial Aid Probation Status for one quarter, after which, the student must be meeting SAP. If the student is not meeting SAP and/or not following their approved academic plan at the next evaluation, the student will not receive Financial Aid until they are once again in compliance.

Students with extenuating circumstances that prevented them from making SAP have the right to appeal their situation with the committee. Extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to, student injury or illness, death of a student's relative or other reasons resulting in undue hardship to the student. Students must submit an Advisor-approved academic plan, and any other related documentation that supports the appeal (see additional information on supporting documentation). Per Federal regulations, an appeal may only be approved if the student shows that they will be able to meet SAP by the next evaluation, or the student's academic plan ensures SAP by a specific point in time. Incomplete/inaccurate appeals and/or Academic Plans will not be approved. The committee will serve as the final arbiter of appeals and will inform the student of the decision regarding their appeal and the status of their financial aid eligibility. All decisions are final and are not subject to further appeal.

If denied, the student may attend LACM, without financial aid, and re-appeal when all components of SAP are met. If the appeal is approved, the student is placed on Financial Aid Probation Status for one quarter, after which, the student must be meeting SAP or be following their approved academic plan. If the student is not meeting SAP or following their academic plan at the next evaluation, they will be ineligible to receive financial aid until they are in compliance.

Academic Plan

Certain appeals require an academic plan identifying dates by which the student will meet all aspects of the SAP policy. An academic plan is automatically required if the student has a cumulative GPA of less than 2.0. An academic plan is also required if the student is appealing the Maximum Time Frame (greater than 150%).

Financial Aid Reinstatement

Students terminated from financial aid may seek reinstatement once they meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Successfully maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0
- SAP is at least 67%.
- Fulfill all payment arrangements with the billing office.

DISBURSEMENTS

If qualified as a financial aid student, being deemed eligible must occur before entitlement of receiving disbursements. Completion of entrance counseling and all financial aid documents prior to receiving the first initial disbursement are required. For all subsequent disbursements, Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) must be maintained. Once financial aid funding has been received, the student will immediately be notified via mail and/or email. Eligible students will be informed about quarterly financial aid awards applied directly to their student account and will be credited toward tuition and all applicable fees. Students have the right to cancel disbursements within 14 days.

LIVING EXPENSE CHECKS

If financial aid disbursement amounts are beyond the cost of tuition, students will receive a Living Expense Check for the balance once all tuition and fees have been deducted and applied to the students' account. Living Expense checks are available 3 business days after each disbursement has been received. LACM will not hold money on the students account beyond the current quarter's tuition and fees.

PREVIOUS FINANCIAL AID

Planning to enroll and apply for financial aid but have attended and received financial aid at a previous institution: Call 1-800-4-FED-AID or go to www.FAFSA.ed.gov and add LACM's Federal code 038684 to the current FAFSA on file so a copy of the Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) can be submitted to LACM.

Student financial aid awards are for 1 academic year. Continuation is dependent upon meeting application priority deadline dates each year, re-establishing financial need, making satisfactory academic progress, and re-enrollment.

REGISTRATION

New students will register for 1st quarter courses at orientation. Continuing LACM students will register for courses during Week 4 of every quarter for each subsequent quarter of attendance. Students will be informed by email and will be given updates throughout their program on their learning management system (Populi) accounts. Students will be trained on Populi to view their courses, grades, connect with other students, and communicate with instructors and administration.

ADD / DROP PERIOD

Students that want to add or drop a course must obtain an Add or Drop Form from the Academic Advisor and follow the steps outlined on the form.

- Week 1: Students may only add courses during Week 1. Students may drop courses without receiving a transcript record.
- Weeks 2-6: Students may drop courses and receive a withdrawal indicated as “W” on the transcript record. Withdrawals are not calculated into the student GPA, but will affect the student’s Incremental Completion Rate (ICR).
- Weeks 7-10: The ability to drop courses has ended. All students will be issued a grade.

Please refer to Tuition Refund Policy for refund percentage. Students must inform the instructor and officially drop the course through the Office of the Registrar.

Late adds after Week 1 are allowed only in extenuating circumstances* and with the approval of the instructor and Dean of Faculty & Students. Students must obtain a Late Add Form from the Academic Advisor.

*Extenuating circumstances are defined as documented cases of serious nature: illness, death in the family, and other circumstances beyond the control of the student. These will always be taken into consideration.

COURSE AUDITING

A student can request to audit a course through the Academic Advisor. The Academic Advisor will seek approval from the Dean of Faculty & Students, course instructor, and the department offering the course. If the student receives approval they will need to return the Course Audit Approval Form to the Registrar’s Office prior to the last day of eligibility for adding a course.

Class Auditing Regulations:

- 1). There are no additional fees to audit a course.
- 2). Students will not receive academic credit.
- 3). Permission to audit entitles the student to attend the course for observation. The student may not participate, ask questions, submit papers, or participate in any evaluation.
- 4). Students auditing courses must not cause interruptions by coming in late, leaving early, etc.
- 5). Course auditing can be revoked at any time by the instructor of the course.
- 6). A course taken for audit in one quarter may be taken for credit in a future quarter.
- 7). A course previously taken for credit and passed may be taken again for audit.
- 8). A student cannot audit a course if it conflicts with their class schedule.

ENROLLMENT VERIFICATION

Students that need proof of enrollment at LACM should contact the Office of the Registrar. Enrollment status will be based on the student’s actual enrollment at the time the verification is prepared. The enrollment status will be based upon registration status for the upcoming quarter if the student needs verification during breaks between quarters.

SCHEDULING

LACM strives to avoid class cancellations. However, due to the professional realities of our faculty sometimes substitute instructors or rescheduling becomes necessary. Courses canceled because of national holidays will not be rescheduled. Private lessons canceled due to national holidays may be rescheduled by student request.

ATTENDANCE

LACM requires class attendance. Active participation is important and attendance is critical to building a learning community. Instructors state attendance policies in their course syllabi and attendance is taken at each class meeting. An instructor's policy may limit allowable absences. Exceeding these limits may result in failing the class. If extenuating circumstances cause a student to miss too many classes, the instructor will consider each case individually.

TARDINESS

Excessive tardiness will not be tolerated. Students that are 5 minutes late for a 30 minute class or over 10 minutes late for classes of 1 hour or more will be considered absent. The first two occurrences of tardiness under the 5 or 10 minute grace period will result in a verbal warning. The third occurrence of tardiness under the 5 or 10 minute grace period will result in an absence.

MAKE-UP EXAMS

Only extenuating circumstances such as personal health problems, death of a family member, or other serious circumstances with proof of the applicable circumstance will allow for make-up exams. It is the student's responsibility to make sure all exam dates are adhered to and necessary action is taken and documentation is provided. Students are expected to remain on campus for the entirety of the quarter, which includes finals week. Your final exams may or may not be scheduled on the same day and time as your regularly scheduled classes. Please plan accordingly. A minimum rescheduling fee of $100.00 will apply, but students should note that additional fees may occur and will vary depending on the class.

ATTENDANCE-BASED CANCELLATION

A student's enrollment will be terminated by LACM due to non-attendance. If at any time during the quarter, a registered student fails to attend 2 consecutive weeks of all scheduled classes, he/she will be administratively withdrawn. An appeal will only be granted due to extenuating circumstances with verifiable documentation. The student will be notified of the decision via e-mail. The refund policy remains consistent regardless of student or administrative withdrawal.

Please refer to the Tuition Refund Policy.

TRANSFER CREDIT

Current LACM Students

Currently enrolled LACM students transferring into another major or program of study at LACM may transfer all applicable credits earned into the new major or program of study.

New Transfer Students

LACM does not directly transfer music credits from another institution except with affiliate colleges that have established articulation agreements. Students are encouraged to take proficiency placement testing. Students that prove proficiency for a course through placement testing will receive credit for the course and are able to move on to the next level of instruction.

MUSIC COURSE PROFICIENCY

Students may prove proficiency in Ear Training/Theory 1-4 and Piano 1-4. If a student would like to prove proficiency in levels 1-2, they can do so during orientation. For levels 3-4, they must request proficiency testing through the Dean of Faculty & Students. If a student would like to proficiency a course they can do so during orientation week. Students will receive a grade of "PR" for proving proficiency in a course and be able to move to the next level.

GENERAL TRANSFER & TRANSCRIPT POLICIES

LACM provides transfer credit services for students:

- Domestic transcripts must originate from a nationally or regionally accredited institution, recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.
- International transcripts must be submitted to a certified credential evaluation service.
- Each course submitted must have a grade of "C" (70% or 2.0) or higher. Grades from previous institutions do not count towards LACM student GPA.
- A transcript is considered official only if:
 - 1). It is sent directly from a college/university to LACM

- 2). It is given to either the Office of Admissions or the Office of the Registrar in a sealed envelope
- Following all transfer credit evaluations, domestic and international students will receive a transfer credit tracking sheet indicating the transferred courses. The transfer credit tracking sheet will be delivered on a timeline in the order as received.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT LACM

The transferability of credits you earn at LACM is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the degree or diploma you earn in LACM Bachelor of Music, Bachelor of Arts, Associate of Arts and Diploma programs is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the degree or diploma that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending LACM to determine if your degree or diploma will transfer.

CREDIT HOUR CONVERSION

LACM operates under a quarter credit hour system. When transferring credit from a college or university using a different system, the following conversions must be made:

Quarter to Semester-Hour Conversion of Credits

- 1 quarter credit hour = .667 semester credit hours
- 2 quarter credit hours = 1.334 semester credit hours
- 3 quarter credit hours = 2 semester credit hours
- 4 quarter credit hours = 2.668 semester credit hours

DOMESTIC TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts from domestic institutions require evaluation during the application process. Students should send or have the institution send official transcripts reflecting all completed coursework to LACM. All transcripts should be delivered to the Office of Admissions (Prospective and Entering students) or to the Office of the Registrar (Continuing and Re-Admitted students).

INTERNATIONAL TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts from all international institutions require an official translation to English and evaluation for American college standards by a certified credential evaluation service. The official translation must be mailed directly from the official translation service, or delivered in a sealed envelope to the Office of Admissions (Prospective and Entering students), or to the Office of the Registrar (Continuing and Re-Admitted students). Be sure to remind any translation service that the translated transcript must include course names, the course credit values, and final grades.

Prospective & Entering Students

Official translations and evaluations should be sent to:

Los Angeles College of Music (LACM)
ATTN: Office of Admissions
300 South Fair Oaks Avenue
Pasadena, CA 91105

Continuing & Re-admitted Students

Official translations and evaluations should be sent to:

Los Angeles College of Music (LACM)
ATTN: Office of the Registrar
370 South Fair Oaks Avenue
Pasadena, CA 91105

GENERAL EDUCATION TRANSFER CREDIT

The LACM Bachelor of Music degree requires general education coursework. As advice, anything taken within the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) will be considered as transfer credit for Domestic students only. Other courses outside the IGETC will be compared by description, course length, and credit value. If the comparisons of general education courses do not match at least by 80%, the course cannot be accepted as transfer credit. AP High-school credit courses are invalid if the AP exam wasn't taken or passed with a score of 3 or higher. CLEP exams are acceptable for credit.

LACM accepts general education courses for transfer credit in the following areas:

- Area 1: English Language Communication & Critical Thinking
- Area 2: Mathematical Concepts & Quantitative Reasoning
- Area 3: Arts & Humanities
- Area 4: Social & Behavioral Sciences
- Area 5: Physical & Biological Sciences
- Area 6: United States History, Constitution, & American Ideals
- Area 7: Continual Coursework & Life-Long Learning

Note: LACM does not accept transfer course credit for grades:

- C-
- D
- F
- I
- W

TRANSFER CREDIT TRACKING SHEET

LACM performs all transfer credit evaluations after a student is accepted. Following the evaluation of each transcript, a student will receive a transfer credit tracking sheet, summarizing the courses and credits accepted for transfer and how those courses equate to LACM's curriculum.

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY

An Incomplete (I) is assigned to signify temporary deferment of a regular final letter grade. It is used sparingly in compelling situations when a student is not able to complete the remaining coursework by the end of the quarter due to extenuating circumstances beyond the ability of the student to predict and control.

To qualify for an Incomplete (I), the student must:

- Have proof of extenuating circumstances.
- Have completed a substantial portion of the coursework (e.g. final exam needs completion).
- Have a passing grade in the work completed.
- Be able to finalize the Incomplete (I) within 6 months (2 quarters) from the last day of the quarter in which the Incomplete (I) was issued.

The student must initiate the request for an Incomplete (I). The instructor cannot issue an Incomplete (I) without a request from the student. The student must fill out the Request for An Incomplete Form and submit it to the course instructor for approval. The form can be found in the Registrar's Office.

FINALIZING THE INCOMPLETE GRADE

- 1). Students must submit the completed form to the course instructor on or before the day of the final exam for the course. If there is no final exam, students must present the form prior to the last day of class.
 - If the student fails to submit the request for an Incomplete (I) by the deadline stated, they will receive the grade that they have earned for the entire course, including work completed and penalties for work not completed.
 - No retroactive Incomplete (I) is permitted.
- 2). If the request is approved, the student will be notified by the Registrar's Office via e-mail. Students can verify their Incomplete (I) on Populi.
- 3). Students are required to adhere to Section 2, Part A and B of the form, which describes the assignment(s) that must be completed and the due date(s) of the assignment(s). Section 2, Part A and B serves as the official contract for finalizing the Incomplete (I).
- 4). If the work described on Section 2, Part A and B of the form is not completed by the due date(s), the Incomplete (I) will automatically be converted to an F.
- 5). If this course is a prerequisite, students must finalize the Incomplete (I) prior to the end of Week 1 of the subsequent quarter (by the Add Deadline) before students are allowed to enroll in the next level.

FINALIZING AN INCOMPLETE (I) COURSE

The student can finalize an incomplete course by scheduling time with the instructor to complete course material. A student who receives an Incomplete in a tiered course (a course with a prerequisite) will not be allowed to enroll in the next level until a passing grade is achieved. If the incomplete grade is not resolved by week 2 of the subsequent quarter (unless the student is on leave) the student will be issued a failing grade (F).

RECEIVING AN (F) or (W) IN A COURSE

If a student receives an (F) or (W) in a course they must repeat it to receive a passing grade.

REPEATING A COURSE

Students who received a passing grade in a course but would like to attempt a higher grade are welcome to repeat a course. Students receiving a failing grade in a required course must repeat that course. Students can attempt a repeated course 3 times. After the 3rd attempt it requires the approval of the Dean of Faculty and Students.

Students should be aware that the use of federal funds is limited. Therefore, alternative funding will be needed to pay for repeats of a course beyond that limit (period of enrollment). Students are responsible for tuition and fees for all repeated courses beyond that limit.

PROGRAM COMPLETION

Students will need to enroll in Program Completion if they are missing any courses toward their program requirements. Students are not encouraged to go into Program Completion because it is a timely and expensive process. Passing all courses is essential to avoid Program Completion and graduate from an LACM program on time. Students who enroll in Program Completion must pay the per credit Tuition fee of $658.44 per credit.

ELIGIBILITY FOR GRADUATION

To qualify for graduation, each student must:

- Receive a passing grade in all required core curriculum in the enrolled program.
- Earn all minimum required credits for the enrolled program.
- Achieve a CGPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Finalize all finances and additional responsibilities with LACM.
- Complete academic advising exit counseling.
- If applicable, complete Financial Aid exit counseling.

ELIGIBILITY FOR CEREMONY PARTICIPATION

- LACM's Graduation Ceremony is offered to all students scheduled to complete their program within 1 quarter.
- Students with remaining program requirements cannot participate unless they enroll in program completion by the quarterly registration deadline.

MAINTENANCE OF STUDENT RECORDS

Permanent records are maintained for all conferred graduates at LACM. All degrees, certificates, awards, courses, credits, and grades are kept on file establishing the students' LACM transcript.

FEDERAL EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS & PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) enable specified rights with respect to education records. These rights include:

- The right to inspect and review your education records within 45 days of the day LACM receives a request for access.
- The right to a written request: All written requests should be sent to the Office of the Registrar. The Office of the Registrar will make arrangements for access and provide notification when the records can be reviewed.
- The right to request an amendment of educational records is believed to be inaccurate or misleading: Written requests that clearly identify the part of the record that need to be changed must be submitted with rationale for why it is inaccurate or misleading. If LACM decides not to amend the record as requested, LACM will give notification of the decision and advise the right to a hearing with detailed information about the process.

- The right to consent for disclosures of personally identifiable information within educational records: One exception that will permit disclosure without consent is a disclosure to LACM officials with legitimate educational interest. A school official is a person employed by LACM as a member of staff, as an instructor, administrator, contractor, law or health personnel, attorney, auditor, member of the Board of Trustees, or a student service or performing tasks for an official on a committee. In order to fulfill position responsibilities, this school official must have a legitimate educational interest to review and record. This practice will only occur in emergency circumstances as LACM respects the rights of students and their families. LACM does disclose educational records of students applying to other institutions as assistance toward further study and recommendation.
- The right to file a complaint with the US Department of Education concerning alleged failures by LACM to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office administering FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office:
US Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-4605
Tel: (202) 260-3887
Fax: (202) 260-9001

LACM's RIGHT TO OVERRIDE OPTIONAL DISCLOSURE

LACM can disclose student information without prior written consent unless an optional disclosure form is specified by the student with the Office of Admissions upon entry or with the Office of the Registrar while attending. In certain circumstances LACM has the right to disclose information with or without optional disclosure from the student or their family.

THE "USA PATRIOT ACT"

Effective October 26, 2001

Established the following exceptions relative to the release of information from institutional files:

- Ex Parte Orders: LACM can disclose, without the consent or knowledge of a student or their family's personally identifiable information from records to representatives of the Attorney General of the United States in response to an ex parte order in connection with investigation or prosecution of terrorism crimes. An ex parte order is an order issued by a court without notice to an adverse party. When LACM makes a disclosure pursuant to an ex parte order, it is not required to record the disclosure of information in a student's file.
- Lawfully Issued Subpoenas, Grand Jury Subpoenas, and Court Order Disclosures.
- In the following two contexts, an institution can disclose information from a student's educational record without consent:
 - To comply with a lawfully issued subpoena.
 - To comply with an issued court order.
 - To comply with a grand jury subpoena LACM could be requested to not inform anyone about the subpoena.

HEALTH OR SAFETY DISCLOSURES

LACM is permitted to disclose personally identifiable information from a students' educational record without the students' written consent in the case of an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or other individuals. This type of disclosure is limited to a situation presenting imminent danger or to a circumstance requiring immediate need for disclosure. In the case of disclosures to the US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS), LACM may release the personally identifiable information of anyone who has signed a Form I-20 and anyone attending on an F-1, M-1, or J-1 visa to the USCIS.

LACM may release personally identifiable information of anyone who has signed a Form I-20 and anyone attending on an F-1, M-1, or J-1 visa to the USCIS.

DIRECTORY INFORMATION

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 gives right to LACM to designate certain information related to students as “directory information”. LACM defines directory information as full name, address, telephone number, email address; date and place of birth, dates of attendance at LACM, program of study, date of graduation or date of withdrawal; and degree awarded.

STUDENT VISAS

Students enrolling in LACM’s Bachelor of Music or Associate of Arts programs are eligible for F-1 student status. Students enrolling in LACM’s Diploma program are federally mandated for M-1 student status. The visa process for both student visa types are the same and are as follows.

After receiving the school acceptance packet, international students must:

- Make the first quarter tuition payment in full.
- Submit a clear scan or copy of their passport and must be valid for at least six months beyond their stay in the US.
- Submit an official financial statement showing they and/or a sponsor(s) have sufficient funds set aside for living expenses during the first year of study.
- Provisional admission to LACM applies until all requirements have been met.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FEES

I-20 Preparation Fee: $100.00

I-20 Additional Post & Administration Fee: $85.00

Once the requirements have been satisfied, the International Student Services Office will validate the documents and issue the student their I-20 form. The Form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility for Non-Immigrant F-1 or M-1 Student Status) will only be issued via mail (UPS) once all the required documents are received by the LACM International Student Services Office. Once the LACM Form I-20 is received, the student must pay a mandatory, one-time SEVIS I-901 Fee online at www.fmjfee.com. The student will need to print a copy of the SEVIS fee payment receipt and bring it to the visa interview appointment when entering the United States. For more information regarding visa application requirements and to schedule a visa interview, please visit www.travel.state.gov. Students are strongly encouraged to begin the visa process as soon as possible and stay in touch with the International Student Services Office because delays are anticipated. For more information regarding student visas, Optional Practical Training, or other inquiries please contact the LACM International Student Services Office: international@lacm.edu.

MAINTAINING STUDENT STATUS

International students, holding an F-1 or M-1 Student Visa, must comply with all immigration rules and regulations. Failure to comply will place the student out-of-status. It is the student’s responsibility to maintain lawful student status at all times.

To maintain your student status, you must: register in a timely, maintain full-time course load (12 credits minimum) per term, report any changes in a timely manner, keep all immigration documents valid and current and never work without prior authorization.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS & HEALTH INSURANCE

Neither LACM nor the U.S. Government require international students to purchase health insurance. If students wish to purchase a health insurance policy that will cover them during their studies at LACM, they may do so independently.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

At LACM, students are expected to demonstrate academic integrity by completing their own work. Effective planning and progress must be accomplished for students to be successful in their degree program of study. Submission of work from another person, whether it is from a printed source or from someone other than the student, and/or papers submitted without source citations, can result in a failing grade, disciplinary actions or dismissal.

The administration, faculty, and staff believe strongly in the concept of an honor system. This belief is based on the knowledge that in competitive professional environments, greater emphasis is placed on originality and the integrity of ideas and work. All members of the LACM academic community, including faculty, students, and administration, are expected to assist in maintaining the integrity of the College, which includes reporting incidents that violate our Academic Policies.

ACADEMIC GRADING SYSTEM

Course grades are based on a 100 point scale. The chart below converts the 100 scale to a letter grade and Grade Point Average (GPA) score.

Points	Letter Grade	Grade Points
92-100	A	4.00
90-91	A-	3.70
88-89	B+	3.30
82-87	B	3.00
80-81	B-	2.70
78-79	C+	2.30
72-77	C	2.00
70-71	C-	1.70
68-69	D+	1.30
62-67	D	1.00
60-61	D-	0.70
0-59	F	0.00

Additional Grade Letter Codes

W	Withdraw from course
P	Pass, credit awarded
F	Fail, no credit awarded
I	Incomplete
R	Repeat

Students must demonstrate academic progress by successfully completing courses attempted with a grade of “C” or higher. Completing courses with a “C” or higher indicates stable academic progress.

SYLLABI

A syllabus will be given to students at the start of each course from their instructor. A syllabus establishes goals, objectives, and grading criteria for determining student performance. Students are responsible for understanding each course syllabus to know what is academically and behaviorally expected.

COURSE CREDITS

All coursework at LACM is measured in quarterly academic credits. Courses are assigned specific credit values based on the type of course, overall coursework required, and approximated study-time requirements. Courses are stylized into lectures, ensemble workshops, labs, and private lessons. The ratio of credits to study-time outside of class equates to 1 quarter credit per 3 hours of study.

DETERMINING GRADE POINT AVERAGE

GPA is determined by multiplying the grade points by the credit value of the course. Quarterly Grade Point Average (QGPA) is determined by dividing the total grade points earned for all courses in one quarter by the total credit values for those courses. Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) is determined by dividing the total grade points earned for all courses in every quarter of a student's program by the total credit values for those courses. If a student repeats a required course only the grade from the repeat will be calculated into both the QGPA and CGPA.

HONOR DESIGNATION

To promote academic excellence and recognize exemplary achievement and success, honor designations will be awarded to Diploma and Associate of Arts students upon graduation:

Dean's Honor Roll: Students must achieve a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) between 3.20 and 3.6.

President's Honor Roll: Students must achieve a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 3.7 or higher.

GRADUATING WITH HONORS

Degree & diploma recipients who have a 3.5 Cumulative GPA are awarded honors upon graduation. The designations of GPA are:

Designation	GPA Range
Cum Laude	3.50 to 3.74
Magna Cum Laude	3.75 to 3.89
Summa Cum Laude	3.90 and above

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP) POLICY

The GPA, Incremental Completion Rate (ICR) and Maximum Time Frame requirements are evaluated every quarter after grades are posted. A student who does not meet the GPA, ICR, or Maximum Time Frame requirement(s) will need to meet with the Academic Advisor. Students should complete their educational objective within a maximum time frame.

Full-Time Enrollment

In order to remain in their program, full-time students at LACM must demonstrate "Satisfactory Academic Progress" (SAP) which is a function of the following components:

- Achieve the minimum Incremental Completion Rate of 67%: Incremental Completion Rate (ICR) is calculated by dividing the total credits a student completed per quarter by the number of credits attempted per quarter. When this calculation falls below 67%, a student is no longer on pace to graduate on time and is ineligible to receive financial aid.
- Meet the minimum 2.0 Cumulative GPA Requirement.
- Complete the program within the maximum allowable timeframe.
 - Diploma (60 credits): within 6 quarters
 - Associate (90 credits): within 9 quarters
 - Bachelor's (180 credits): within 18 quarters

Students failing to maintain SAP requirements will be dismissed with the opportunity to appeal. LACM reserves the right to modify the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy at any time.

Part-Time Enrollment

In order to remain in their program, part-time students at LACM must demonstrate "Satisfactory Academic Progress" (SAP) which is a function of the following components:

- Achieve the minimum Incremental Completion Rate of 67%: Incremental Completion Rate (ICR) is calculated by dividing the total credits a student completed per quarter by the number of credits attempted per quarter. When this calculation falls below 67%, a student is no longer on pace to graduate on time and is ineligible to receive financial aid.
- Meet the minimum 2.0 Cumulative GPA Requirement.
- Complete the program within the maximum allowable timeframe.
 - Diploma (60 credits): within 10 quarters
 - Associate (90 credits): within 15 quarters
 - Bachelor's (180 credits): within 30 quarters

Students failing to maintain SAP requirements will be dismissed with the opportunity to appeal. LACM reserves the right to modify the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy at any time.

Less than Part-Time Enrollment

Students may only drop below 6 credits per quarter with verifiable medical need and must obtain the approval of the Dean of Faculty & Students. They must also meet with the Academic Advising Office to discuss their Academic Plan. Students must request the status change by Friday of Week 11 of the preceding quarter. Please note that enrolling in less than part-time status will drastically effect your timeframe for completion of the program.

ACADEMIC DISMISSAL PROCEDURE WITH OPTION TO APPEAL

1. ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

Occurs when a student:

- Fails to meet SAP Policy
- Fails to attend for 2 consecutive weeks of any course in a quarter

Students who do not meet SAP requirements will be notified by the Registrar Office and the Financial Aid Office that they have been placed in Academic Dismissal with an option to appeal.

2. ACADEMIC APPEAL

- Students have the immediate opportunity after dismissal to appeal by providing adequate explanation for failing to meet SAP Policy or missing two consecutive weeks of class, and must provide reasoning for why they should be allowed to continue their studies at LACM. Students with extenuating circumstances that prevented them from making SAP have the right to appeal their situation with the committee. Extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to, student injury or illness, death of a student's relative or other reasons resulting in undue hardship to the student.
- Rejection of appeal occasionally occurs and in the unfortunate event, the student can wait 1 year and reapply to LACM through the Office of Admissions.
- If the student is eligible to appeal for continuation into the next quarter, the appeal is due at 5 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding week 1 (break week 2).
- By submitting an official appeal with approval granted by the Dean of Faculty and Students, the student will be allowed to continue into the next quarter of their program as originally scheduled.
- If appealing to repeat the failed quarter, the student must submit their appeal within the registration period for the quarter in which they plan to restart their program of study. By submitting an official appeal with approval granted by the Dean of Faculty and Students, the student will be allowed to repeat the failed quarter of their program.
- If the student appeals the academic dismissal and the appeal is approved the student will be subsequently placed on Academic Probation for one quarter after which, the student must be meeting SAP.

3. ACADEMIC PROBATION

- Students will be placed on Academic Probation when their cumulative GPA continues below 2.0 after an appealed quarter.
- To be placed on Academic Probation is a very serious matter, and students should not treat this casually. LACM, wants students to understand that being on Probation means they are one step away from being Suspended and we require students who are on Academic Probation to complete an “education plan” with the Academic Advising Office. Students who are placed on Probation will receive an email from the Academic Advising Office explaining the steps involved toward completing their plan.

ACADEMIC EXPULSION

Students failing Probation will be academically expelled from LACM.

- If a student continues to not meet SAP requirements for the quarter of Probation, the student will be academically suspended with an opportunity to re-apply to LACM in one year. No aid is available.

Under normal circumstances, only a student previously on Academic Probation will be considered for Suspension. The college reserves the right at any time to dismiss any student who was not previously on academic probation.

STUDENT SERVICES & CAMPUS CARE

An enjoyable educational experience is maintained with the help of students, not only faculty and staff. Students must observe the following guidelines while on-campus:

- No food or drinks (except water) are allowed in classrooms or practice labs.
- Bicycles, skateboards, scooters, and skates are allowed through the Student Entrance. Riding inside the LACM North and South buildings is strictly prohibited. These forms of self-propelled transportation can be locked at the South building courtyard. All of these forms of self-propelled transportation kept in the courtyard must be registered in the Student Services Office.
- Personal mail sent to LACM will be returned to sender.
- Smoking cigarettes is permitted ONLY in the designated smoking area behind the LACM campus. Please discard cigarette butts in the ashtrays provided.
- Do not litter on the LACM campus. Please throw out all garbage and keep the campus clean.

HELPFUL DEFINITIONS

Full-time Student: A student enrolled in a minimum of 12 credits per quarter.

Part-time Student: A student enrolled in a minimum of 6 credits per quarter.

Less than Part-time Student: A student enrolled in less than 6 credits per quarter.

Academic Year: A period of 3 quarters.

Calendar Year: A period of 4 quarters.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

LACM's Office of Academic Advising is ready to answer questions and offer the best solutions for students. The Office of Academic Advising is available to help students with:

- Academic Progress
- New Academic Plans
- Recommendation Letters
- Personal Counseling

- Workshops
- Resources
- Outreach and Support for Numerous Issues
- Student Forms: Leave of Absence - Extended Applied Learning Absence – Withdrawal – Re-admit – Change of Program/Major – Add / Drop Forms

Students are always welcome to make an appointment with the Office of Academic Advising: advising@lacm.edu, 626-568-8850

TUTORING PROGRAMS

A student tutoring program is available to any student who needs help outside of class. If students are interested, contact the Office of Academic Advising or view the student boards in the South building for a list of available tutors. The tutor is responsible for filling out the student tutor form indicating the student being tutored, the date, length of time, and material covered.

EQUIPMENT

LACM recommends that all students bring a recording device such as a hand-held digital recorder or a successful cell phone recording application.

- Vocalists must bring their own microphone and XLR cables for practice outside of class.
- Drummers must bring cymbals, a hi-hat clutch and stand, a practice pad, single or double pedals; and sticks, washers and felts.
- Guitarists and bassists must bring a metronome, tuner, cables, and their instrument. LACM also recommends having extra strings and picks.
- Amps, drum kits, and PA systems are provided in the classrooms and labs.
- Additional instruments and other equipment can be checked out for practice using an LACM student ID card as a deposit at the South building student entrance. One item may be checked out at a time. LACM does not loan instruments or other equipment for off-campus use.

LOCKERS

Lockers are assigned at orientation and students must purchase a combination or key lock to secure their belongings. Lockers for Drum department students can accommodate cymbals up to 21 inches in diameter. Lockers for Guitar and Bass department students can accommodate instruments in soft cases; hard cases will not fit.

PARKING

Monthly and daily parking is available for a fee at the Metro Gold Line Del Mar Station located near LACM. Free street parking is available to everyone, but be sure to observe posted parking laws. Daily parking is also available for a fee in the small lot on the opposite side of Fair Oaks Avenue.

CAREER CENTER

The LACM Career Center is open to all students on a drop-in basis along with an open door policy for visiting alumni. Services include resume' coaching, career development workshops, assistance with finding gigs and internship opportunities, and weekly one-on-one career counseling sessions with top music industry professionals.

The Career Center regularly hosts educational and networking events for students and alumni. The center also organizes exclusive audition opportunities and offers a number of accessible electronic resources for students through LACM's Populi system. For more information on how to take advantage of LACM Career Center services and electronic resources, email careercenter@lacm.edu.

SECURITY

Pursuant to 20 United States Code 1092 (a) and (f) also known as the Jeanne Clery Campus Security Act, LACM adheres to the following security and crime reporting procedures:

LACM will report all campus incidents to a designated Attending Rep (AR) on post at the South building student entrance so it can be noted on the daily crime and incidents log for possible investigation. This includes crimes and incidents within and around the campus. In the event an AR is unavailable, witnesses and/or victims must complete a crime and incident report and return it to the AR when available. In addition, incident reports may be given directly to Student Services. The Campus Security Act of 1999 requires LACM to compile a report with data gathered from its own campus security and crime report combined with statistics from the Pasadena Police Department. A notification will be sent out via school email announcing when the crime report is available.

- LACM reminds students of their responsibility for their own equipment, books, supplies, and other gear.

THEFT

LACM upholds a very serious policy concerning theft and the protection of both personal and campus property. If a student steals, damages, or destroys personal or campus property, the student will automatically be suspended from attending classes and will not be allowed on campus. The student will have 24 hours to remove any personal belongings. The discipline committee will hold a hearing and the student will be invited to attend and defend themselves. The discipline committee will then make a decision regarding how the matter will be addressed within a 10 day period. Anyone who displays further inappropriate behavior can be immediately dismissed from LACM without a hearing.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY

Promoting safety within the LACM community through compliance with the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (the HEOA) is integral to the protection and security of everyone on campus. In the event a student goes missing for more than 24 hours a confidentially indicated person previously disclosed by the student to the Student Services Office will be contacted by LACM.

If a member of the LACM community has reason to believe a student has gone missing or receives a report of a missing student they will immediately contact their supervisor and/or the Pasadena Police Department at 626-744-4501.

A students' confidential contact information will be accessible only by authorized campus officials and will not be disclosed except to law enforcement agents for collaboration to find the missing person.

A missing student report must be immediately filed with the Pasadena Police Department. If the student who is missing is under 18 years of age and not emancipated, LACM must notify a custodial parent or guardian within 24 hours of determining the student is missing. In addition to notifying the confidential contact person designated by the student, LACM will notify the local law enforcement agency within 24 hours of the student being missing.

WEAPONS POLICY

Weapons and ammunition are safety hazards. Possession, use, or displays of weapons or ammunition are inappropriate in an academic community. Weapons of any kind including ammunition will not by any means be worn, displayed, used, or possessed on the LACM campus. Any employee, faculty, student, or other representative of the college who violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action. Any member of the public who violates this policy will be subject to law enforcement action. If the public member does not comply, the individual will be removed from the LACM campus and subject to all legal penalties including the criminal trespass provisions under California law. This policy does not apply to the possession or use of disabling chemical sprays when used for self-defense.

CAMPUS ACCESS

In order to gain access to LACM campus facilities, it is required to scan an ID card or obtain a visitor pass.

Students, faculty and staff must scan their ID to enter both buildings (North and South), and must display their ID at all times. If a student, faculty or staff member forgets their ID they must obtain a Temporary ID from the front desk in the North Building in order to enter.

Students are limited to a maximum of 5 Temporary Student ID's per quarter. Subsequently, students will be issued and charged $15 for a new student ID.

LACM has the right to refuse access to facilities to any person under any circumstance if deemed necessary and appropriate.

STUDENT VISITOR(S)

Current students may request a visitor's pass for guests no more than twice per month. A particular visitor may only receive a visitor pass twice per month. For additional visits, the student must obtain permission from the Dean of Faculty and Students. The student (not the visitor) must personally request the Visitor's Pass.

HOW TO OBTAIN A VISITOR PASS

Visitor Passes are available at the front desk of the North Building. All outside visitor(s) must check-in and show a valid photo ID in order to obtain a pass. Visitor(s) must wear a Visitor Pass at all times. Passes for visits on evenings, weekends, holidays, and other times during which the Main Office is closed must be obtained in advance, during regular office hours (Monday through Friday, 9:00am - 5:00pm).

ALUMNI VISITOR PASS & REHEARSAL POLICY

LACM provides rehearsal space for alumni. In order to rehearse, Alumni must apply for an Alumni ID Card and must schedule their room in advance by emailing wilber@lacm.edu.

Depending on availability, two rooms (102 & 205) are available as follows: Monday through Friday (10:00pm -12:45am); Weekends from (9:00am – 12:45am).

Alumni requesting access are responsible for their own guests, and for keeping the room clean and organized after rehearsal (no food or beverages are allowed in any rooms). Guests must comply with all school rules and regulations while on campus. If the alumni or their guest violates the LACM Code of Conduct, Alumni ID cards and rehearsal privileges will be revoked.

RECORDING STUDIO

Use of the Recording Studio (Room 201/202) by students or alumni always requires permission. For more information, email wilber@lacm.edu.

HOW TO SCHEDULE A REHEARSAL ROOM

Alumni that wish to schedule a rehearsal room must email wilber@lacm.edu with the time slot desired (3 hours max) at least 24 hours in advance. Alumni must provide the first and last names of all members and guests. Guests must provide valid ID at the student entrance when checking in. Without a valid ID, guests will not be allowed on campus.

Students that wish to schedule a rehearsal room may do so at any time. To schedule, they must visit the front desk of the building where they intend to rehearse.

DISMISSED/EXPELLED STUDENTS

Students that have been dismissed or expelled due to reasons related to any violation of the Code of Conduct, are not permitted on-campus under any circumstance.

CODE OF CONDUCT & EXPECTATIONS

Student Responsibilities

Each student is responsible for the following:

- Reading the Catalog, accessing their Populi account to view their Academic Record, scheduled classes, and financial responsibilities.
- Submitting official transcripts to the Admissions Office when transfer coursework has been completed.
- Registering for classes within the registration deadlines.

- Completing appropriate forms (drops, adds, status changes, etc.) by the published deadlines.
- Applying for aid based on the finalized number of credits for the quarter.
- Paying tuition and fees in full or developing a payment plan on or by the published deadlines.
- Keeping copies of all transactions, records, and receipts.
- Submitting change of name, address, or phone number to the Registrar's Office in writing.

- Respecting the rights and property of others.
- Being fully acquainted with and complying with the LACM published rules and regulations.
- Complying with all local, state, and federal laws.
- Adhering to the academic requirements determined by individual instructors.

Student Standards of Conduct

Admission to LACM carries with it the presumption that students will conduct themselves in a manner compatible with LACM's function as an educational institution. Behavior that is disruptive and/or interferes with the educational process is disrespectful of the rights of others and is not acceptable.

Classes at LACM are interactive, drawing on the rich experiences of faculty and students alike. LACM's anti-bias commitment applies to all areas of discrimination, including those based on race, ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, gender, age, disability, and religious affiliation. Disrespect shown towards persons in all categories, both generally and as individuals, is not acceptable. Violation of standards of behavior, academic integrity, confidentiality, and discrimination are deemed to be a serious breach of conduct and students doing so will face the possibility of disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from LACM.

Unacceptable Behavior

Unacceptable behaviors include, but are not limited to the following:

- Any violation of LACM Policy as outlined in the Catalog.
- Unlawful possession, use, sale, or distribution of drugs.
- Being under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Inappropriate sexual conduct.
- Exhibiting behavior which is disruptive, disrespectful or violent towards staff or other students, including, but not limited to, harassment or discriminatory conduct.
- Furnishing false information.
- Unauthorized use, forgery, or alteration of LACM's documents, name, logo, or seal.
- Destruction of LACM property or individual property of students or staff.
- Unauthorized possession or use of LACM property or property of students or staff.
- Unauthorized use of LACM equipment, keys, access codes, or scan cards.
- Possession of firearms, fireworks, explosives, or weapons on LACM's premises.
- Misuse of LACM communication systems: Behavior that disrupts or causes disruption of computer services, including, but not limited to, damaging, altering, or destroying data, records, computer systems, software, programs, or networks. Student behavior that is not in compliance with the institutional Computer Systems Use Policy will be considered to be in breach of the Code.
- Theft of LACM or individual property.
- Unauthorized animals on institutional premises.
- Disorderly, lewd, or indecent conduct.
- Divulging confidential information: students who work or volunteer in LACM administrative offices and have access to confidential information are prohibited from divulging such information under FERPA.
- Unauthorized use, forgery, or alteration of student identification cards.
- Inappropriate off-campus conduct when representing LACM.
- Disrespect for privacy: students may not give directory information or photos of other students to anyone outside the LACM community.
- Inappropriate conduct of guests.

INSTRUMENT CHECK-OUT POLICY

Students may check-out equipment for use off-campus. In order to be eligible, then must be currently enrolled and have a proper Student ID with no outstanding registration forms, fees or balances due. Students must submit an LACM Equipment Request Form & Contract to the Front Desk of the South Building at least 24 hours in advance. Equipment rental is subject to availability.

The LACM Equipment Rental Contract requires students to place a debit or credit card on file with the Business Office in order to become eligible for rental.

COMPUTER SYSTEMS USE POLICY

Vandalism, theft or other abuse of LACM computers or personal computers of LACM students, faculty or staff is prohibited, including but not limited to:

- Modifying system or network facilities, or attempting to crash systems or networks.
- Using personal software on LACM computers.
- Using network resources which inhibit or interfere with the use of the network by other students.
- Using, duplicating, or transmitting copyrighted material without first obtaining the owner's permission, in any way that may reasonably be expected to constitute an infringement, or that exceeds the scope of a license, or violate other contracts.
- Tampering with software protections or restrictions placed on computer applications or files.
- Using information technology resources to obtain unauthorized access to records, data, and other forms of information owned, used, possessed by, or pertaining to the college or individuals.
- Accessing another person's computer account without permission.

- Intentionally introducing computer viruses, worms, Trojan Horses, or other rogue programs into information technology resources that belong to, are licensed to, or are leased by the college or others.
- Physically damaging information technology resources.
- Using, or encouraging others to use, information technology resources in any manner that would violate this or other college policies or any applicable State or Federal law.

FOOD & DRINK

Only water in a sealable container is allowed inside LACM classrooms.

HEALTH POLICIES

Employee-Student Notification Policy of a Substance-Free Campus

In congruence with The Higher Education Act of 1965, Substance-Free Schools and Communities section, Los Angeles College of Music adheres to and notifies all students:

Standards of Conduct-Disciplinary Sanctions

Unlawful possession, manufacture, cultivation, use, and/or distribution of illegal drugs and alcohol are strictly prohibited on campus property and are defined under City, State, and Federal Law. This includes North and South Campuses, school parking lots, as well as any affiliated college location where classes or events are held. State law (Section 41301, of Title 5, California Code of Regulations) allows Los Angeles College of Music to implement disciplinary action against any student or employee who sells, uses, or possesses illegal drugs or alcohol on campus property and is subject to suspension or expulsion. Action by Los Angeles College of Music may be taken despite independent action taken by civil authorities. Alcohol consumption is restricted to particular events, places, times, and occasions with confirmation of valid identification of being 21 years of age or older. Attendees to particular events containing alcoholic beverages are limited. Violations of this policy in partial compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act will result in suspension or expulsion.

The service of alcoholic beverages at Los Angeles College of Music functions must be in compliance with California State and Pasadena City laws and college policies — i.e., an individual must be of legal age to possess or purchase alcoholic beverages; and individuals/organizations may not sell or serve alcoholic beverages without proper license. Los Angeles College of Music adheres to the Drug-Free Schools & Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Amends the Higher-Education Act), when hosting any college-sponsored function. The sale of alcohol at any function is illegal without a liquor license.

LEGAL SANCTIONS

Illegal Drugs

Federal and State laws mandate penalties for illegal usage, possession, manufacture, sale, transportation, and cultivation of any narcotic. More severe penalties will be applied for second time offenders than first and extremely severe penalties involving minors will be applied. Those subject to prosecution are those who illegally use, are under the influence of, or knowingly go to places where narcotic usage is occurring. Marijuana and other illegal drugs under labeling of organic substances are also under stipulation of these laws and additional violations will occur for the cultivation and/or processing of these drugs. Barbiturates, amphetamines, LSD, and other related hallucinogenic drugs are deemed restricted and dangerous under the California Narcotic Act. Penalties for those who are convicted of illegal possession, manufacture, cultivation, sale, transportation, and/or usage are severe.

Alcohol

Los Angeles College of Music adheres to the laws of the State of California, the County of Los Angeles, and the City of Pasadena.

All are held to the standards and jurisdiction of the law despite age or status. The sale, purchase, or possession of alcohol for anyone under 21; the serving of alcohol to someone already intoxicated; and the manufacture or use of a false ID of any kind will be convicted in violation of these laws and subject to punishment up to and including jail sentence.

COERCED/FORCED CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOL AND/OR OTHER DRUGS

In instances, such as hazing, where a student or students or employee or employees force another to consume alcohol or other drugs, or conspire(s) to force another to consume alcohol or other drugs, or fail(s) to take direct action to stop the incident (personal intervention, calling authorities) immediate and strict sanctions (including suspension/expulsion) may be imposed on the responsible individual(s).

HEALTH RISKS

The health risks of using illegal drugs, pharmaceutical narcotics, and alcohol are well documented. Many thousands of deaths occur each year and are directly attributed to substance abuse or indirectly attributed from accidents, illnesses, or violence related to substance abuse. Use of these substances in excess can cause damages to:

- Physiological and Anatomical functions including impairment of the human body including but not limited to respiratory, digestive, cognitive, nerve, reproductive, endocrine, and cardiovascular systems.
- Psychological and Cognitive functions can also be impaired including but not limited to memory loss, lack of stable judgment, shifts in mood and personality, adverse effects toward relationships, and may induce psychotic episodes.

LACM STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Many aspects of the college experience can create new kinds of stress in a variety of areas for students. While it's an exciting time, it can also be overwhelming. LACM provides free private and individualized support services to assist students with any emotional, social, behavioral or mental well-being challenges that might affect their academic performance and/or quality of life while attending. Services are completely confidential and are open to all current LACM students. Services include:

- Stress management counseling
- Community resources for food and shelter assistance
- Support services for students with disabilities
- Assistance for students with alcohol or drug dependencies
- Referrals to outside agencies, clinics, and therapists relating to issues such as stress, anxiety, depression, loss, relationship concerns, sexual and physical assault, severe substance abuse, suicidal ideation, eating disorders, and other mental health concerns

To see a member of the Student Support Services staff, you can make an appointment by emailing studentsupport@lacm.edu.

LOS ANGELES COLLEGE OF MUSIC'S RELATIONSHIP WITH STUDENTS

Los Angeles College of Music recognizes its contractual relationships with its students. In regard to alcohol and other drug use, Los Angeles College of Music realizes its students are adults who are ultimately responsible for their own behavior. LACM does, however, recognize its responsibility to provide services and policies designed to diminish the incidence of alcohol misuse and other illicit drug use. LACM attempts to avoid consequent negative outcomes; continues to educate students and consistently enforces alcohol and other drug-related policies; and is compliant with city and state laws pertaining to alcohol and drug use.

NOTE OF PRECAUTION

Los Angeles College of Music would not be complete in their sanctions of long-term effects regarding offense involving drugs and alcohol if it were not noted. A criminal offense or arrest record for drug use or alcohol abuse may cause serious long-term harm for the user regarding employment, financial aid, and other educational opportunities. Consideration for these opportunities may incur interference where criminal records or the label of drug or alcohol user is apparent. In addition, international students using substances illegally or are labeled as a user could be subject to interruptions with Visa and/or I-20 status and dismissal to their home country.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment can be a serious problem for student's at all educational levels. Sexual harassment is defined as requests for sexual favors or unwelcomed sexual behavior that creates fear, discomfort, or confusion. Sexual harassment is characterized in three ways:

- Verbal (comments about body type, spreading sexual rumors, giving unwanted sexual remarks or accusations, or inappropriate dirty jokes or stories)
- Physical (grabbing, rubbing, flashing, touching, pinching in a sexual way, or sexual assault)
- Visual (display of naked pictures or sex-related objects, or obscene gestures)

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE BEING HARASSED

If you believe you are being sexually harassed by a fellow student or a faculty or staff member, report the harassment.

Speak with someone at LACM who is reliable and comfortable to talk to about the incident. It is important to report the harassment so it can be addressed and resolved. The comfort, safety, and mental stability of everyone at LACM are priority.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Accommodations will be made for students with disabilities. Upon acceptance to LACM, a written request for special accommodation should be submitted and documentation verifying disability will be required. Appropriate accommodation will be determined based upon the request and accompanying documentation about the students' disability. Students are responsible for providing LACM with the appropriate documentation. LACM does not pay for costs to retrieve documentation. LACM does not charge students for campus disability accommodations. All requests, communications, and documentation are confidential.

STATEMENT OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

LACM does not discriminate in its admissions, educational or employment policies, scholarship or loan programs, or other school-administered programs on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, sex, gender, gender identity or status, age, ancestry or national origin, medical condition, physical or mental disability, citizenship status, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, genetic characteristics or information, or any other consideration made unlawful by federal, state, or local laws. All such discrimination is unlawful.

GRIEVANCE POLICIES & PROCEDURES STUDENT GRIEVANCE POLICY

The purpose of the Student Grievance Policy is to provide due process for resolving complaints from all LACM officials (administration, instructors, and staff) and students concerning discrimination or harassment.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES (DUE PROCESS)

LACM has established 3 grievance procedures for LACM officials and students to follow depending on the nature of the grievance. These 3 procedures are:

- A. Standard
- B. Academic
- C. Sexual Harassment
 - Always report grievances immediately to an uninvolved LACM official.
 - Under no circumstances will an LACM official or student requesting due process be harassed, intimidated, discouraged, or denied access to grievance procedures.
 - Areas for statement of appeal regarding grievance include but are not limited to:
 - 1). Classroom procedures
 - 2). Charges of unfair treatment
 - 3). Charges of unfair grades
 - 4). Absence and tardiness practices
 - 5). Course requirements substantially different from the syllabus
 - 6). Participation in LACM activities
 - 7). Sexual harassment

A. STANDARD GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 1). The Dean of Faculty and Students: If a complaint cannot be resolved in an informal conference or if the nature of the complaint demands more serious measures, the complainant can write a written, signed, and dated statement of appeal to the Dean of Faculty and Students. The Dean of Faculty and Students will schedule a formal conference with all involved persons.
- 2). The Appeal Committee: If the complaint cannot be settled by a formal conference, the Dean of Faculty and Students will appoint an appeal committee to review the statement of appeal. The committee will be comprised of:
 - 1 faculty member
 - 1 department chair
 - 2 students

The Committee will consider all relevant testimony and supporting documentation presented by the student or LACM official in the statement of appeal. Legal counsel cannot represent the LACM official or student.

Based upon a thorough review of all relevant evidence and testimony, the appeal committee will make recommendations to solve the grievance. The appeal committee will have 10 business days from the filing of the request for the statement of appeal to provide recommendations. The Dean of Faculty and Students will render a written decision.

- 3). The President of LACM: If the LACM official or student believes there are extenuating circumstances or the evidence presented was not appropriately considered, the LACM official or student can submit a written appeal to the president of LACM. The President will review the appeal and render a written decision. The decision of the President is final.

B. ACADEMIC GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

An academic grievance must be filed within 10 days or by the Friday of the 2nd week of the subsequent quarter. The following people should be contacted:

- 1). The Instructor: The student should first speak with the instructor involved in the academic grievance. A conference can be held with the instructor to resolve the grievance informally.

- 2). The Dean of Faculty and Students: If the conference with the instructor does not resolve the grievance, the student can speak with the Dean of Faculty and Students to seek resolution.
- 3). The President: If the grievance is still unresolved in the meeting with the Dean of Faculty and Students, the student may choose to appeal directly to the President of LACM.

D. SEXUAL HARASSMENT GRIEVANCE

If a grievance pertains to a charge of sexual harassment by an LACM official or student:

- Go directly to the President rather than the offending person.
- If the matter is unresolved by the President, the LACM official or student can use the standard grievance procedure.

All written or verbal communication on the part of Los Angeles College of Music faculty or students will be confidential.

QUESTIONS, COMMENDATION & COMPLAINTS

Any questions a student may have regarding this catalog that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the:

CHANGE OF STUDENT STATUS POLICIES & PROCEDURES

For students that wish to change their current academic status, multiple designations exist. These include Withdrawal, Leave of Absence, Change of Major or Program, Extended Applied Learning Absence, and Re-Admittance. The Office of Academic Advising facilitates all change of status requests and can assist students that have questions about this process.

WITHDRAWAL

Current students may choose to withdraw from LACM for a variety of personal reasons including but not limited to: financial difficulties, family concerns, career exploration, and personal adjustment matters. The student has the right to withdraw from LACM at any time by providing written notice using LACM's Withdrawal Form from the Office of Academic Advising. A withdrawal from LACM for personal reasons (not including medical or military activation) during a quarter may be granted to a matriculated student if the request is received by the Office of Academic Advising and then processed by the Office of the Registrar. Once the request is processed, a W (withdrawal) grade notation is recorded on the student's academic transcript for each course not yet completed. The student will also receive an official letter from the Office of the Registrar notifying the request for withdrawal has been approved and processed.

These steps must be followed by students who request to Withdraw:

- 1). Make an appointment with an academic advisor.
- 2). Fill out a withdrawal form.
- 3). Participate in an exit interview with an academic advisor.
- 4). Submit the withdrawal from to the Office of the Registrar to be processed.
- 5). Receive written confirmation of processed and approved withdrawal from the Office of the Registrar.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A Leave of Absence (LOA) is a temporary break in studies and is only granted under extenuating circumstances (e.g. prolonged illness or injury). Not all LOA requests may be granted. It is at the discretion of LACM to grant LOAs. The reason for request must be valid and the intention of the student must be to return after problems have been solved. Students on an approved LOA will retain their enrolled (in-school) status as a student of LACM.

Students who are faced with a sudden and unexpected extenuating circumstance may apply for an LOA. Students may resume studies at the same point of the quarter where they left off. For example, if a student is approved on Monday of Week 5 of their 2nd quarter, the student may resume enrollment on Monday of Week 5 in the subsequent 2nd Quarter.

These steps must be followed by students for an LOA:

- 1). Standard LOA time may not exceed 6 months. Students who fail to return within 6 months will have their LOA status changed to Withdrawn effective 6 months from the date the LOA was approved.
- 2). All LOAs must be requested in writing and signed by the Dean of Faculty and Students followed by the final approval and processing by the Office of the Registrar.
- 3). International students are advised that they may not be able to maintain international student status during an approved LOA and should consult with the International Student Services regarding their individual situation.
- 4). Financial aid recipients taking an LOA should consult with the Financial Aid Office regarding the specifics on their continued financial aid eligibility. Failure to resume studies on time may affect the current term of Federal Student Aid.
- 5). Students approved for LOA must resume their studies at the same day, week and quarter of their departure. For example, if the LOA was granted on Monday of Week 3 in their 3rd quarter, the student will resume their studies on Monday of Week 3 in their 3rd quarter the next time that course sequence becomes available. Due to the way LACM structures its course pacing, this does not allow students to resume studies until 6 months after their initial Leave of Absence. In order to refresh their knowledge of course material and best prepare for examinations, they are advised to audit classes, free of charge, for two weeks prior to returning to their studies.

- 6). If students wish to participate in, rather than audit, classes in the weeks prior to their return date from LOA, they may do so, but will be charged a $100.00 fee per week. For example, if a student originally withdrew in Week 6 of the quarter, but wishes to return from an LOA in Week 1 of the same quarter, they will be charged $500.00 for weeks 1-5.
- 7). In the case of a medical emergency, the student or their authorized representative may have a grace period of 14 calendar days from the student's last date of attendance to submit the LOA form. If the school does not receive an LOA form within this time frame, the student's status will be changed to "Withdrawn" effective their last date of attendance. In all other cases there is no grace period.
- 8). Students on LOA are not allowed to use campus facilities. However, students on LOA may participate in open public events on campus.

International students that take a Leave of Absence should note that their I-20 will be terminated on their last day of attendance.

CHANGE OF MAJOR/PROGRAM

Students are required to declare a major at the time of application. However students are welcome to change their major. Those that wish to change their major must visit the Office of Academic Advising and consult with an Academic Advisor before applying to change their major.

These steps must be followed by students for a Change of Major/Program:

- 1). Make an appointment with an academic advisor.
- 2). Fill out a Change of Major/Program form.
- 3). Only Change of Majors must follow admissions procedures.
- 4). Submit form to the Office of the Registrar to be processed.

- 5). Receive written notice of acceptance from Admissions for Change of Major.
- 6). Receive written notice of acceptance and processing from the Office of the Registrar for Change of Program.
- 7). A copy of the written notice will reside in the student's current file.

EXTENDED APPLIED LEARNING ABSENCE

An Extended Applied Learning Absence (EALA) allows students to request a momentary break from their program/classes. This will be granted to students who have received work opportunities within the music industry that are deemed beneficial to the student's career advancement. Students are required to submit written proof of these learning or career opportunities. EALAs are allowed for a maximum time frame of two weeks. Students requiring more than two weeks are encouraged to apply for a Leave of Absence. The combination of any approved EALA and LOA must not exceed a maximum of 180 days or the student's status will be changed to "Withdrawn." These steps must be followed by students to acquire an EALA:

- 1). Make an appointment with an academic advisor.
- 2). Provide written proof of career or learning opportunity.
- 3). Fill out an Extended Applied Learning Absence form.
- 4). Submit the EALA form and written proof of career or learning opportunity to the Office of the Registrar to be processed.
- 5). Receive written confirmation of processed and approved EALA from the Office of the Registrar.

READMITTANCE

Students may enroll and leave during any quarter of an academic year. Students who are considering a withdrawal or break in enrollment should review LACM's policies. In order to submit a request for re-admittance students must complete a Re-Admittance Form. Re-admittance requests must be received before registration deadlines. If you are a student who has been away from LACM for more than a year due to a Withdrawal, LOA, or EALA, you must re-apply through the standard admissions process. If you are accepted, you must fill out a Re-admit form with an academic advisor.

*Re-admission to LACM is not guaranteed.

Students approved for re-admittance will be assessed the current tuition rate. Students will also be assessed under the current curriculum standards. Students are responsible to meet any changes to the program of study having occurred during the period of absence. Students cannot be re-admitted to programs having been discontinued. Students requesting re-admission to a major that has undergone substantial change since matriculation may not receive credit for all courses previously taken.

These steps must be followed by students who request Re-admittance:

- 1). Make an appointment with an academic advisor.
- 2). Fill out a Re-admittance form.
- 3). Follow standard Admissions procedures.
(Students exceeding 6 months from LOA or EALA or 1 year from Withdrawal)
- 4). Submit Re-admittance form to the Office of the Registrar.
- 5). Receive written confirmation of processed and approved re-admittance.

Music Performance with an emphasis in Bass

The challenge of a bass player is to have a firm grip on harmonic movement, time groove, and quick access to the subtleties of many genres. To help you meet this challenge, the curriculum at LACM combines theory, reading, musicianship, and practical live playing. In daily Ensemble Workshops, students perform alongside some of LA's best musicians and develop experience in a concentrated "real-world" scenario preparing them to face any situation with confidence and poise.

Music Performance with an emphasis in Drums

Drums are the heartbeat of the ensemble. Great drummers balance the art of listening, leading, improvising and playing with confidence. The drum major at LACM focuses study on learning the instrument and learning to play with others. The curriculum improves motor skills, technique, and sound while presenting contemporary rhythm concepts and developing a wide range of repertoire across all styles.

RALPH HUMPHREY

Drum Department Chair

Ralph Humphrey is one of Los Angeles' most demanded studio drummers, recording for TV, motion pictures, albums and jingles. His most recent projects include American Idol, Charmed, Piglet's Big Movie, Star Trek Enterprise, The Simpsons, ABC 50th Anniversary Special, Far From Heaven, Coca Cola, and Ping Golf Clubs. He is on the recent release by Babaghanoush, featuring Jimmy Mahlis, Andy Suzuki, and Jerry Watts. His past touring and recording experience includes the Don Ellis Big Band, Frank Zappa and the Mothers of Invention, Akiyoshi-Tabackin Big Band, Al Jarreau, Manhattan Transfer, Seals and Crofts, and Free Flight. He can also be heard on album projects by Wayne Shorter, Tom Rainier, Mike Miller, Jeff Richman, and The Outside- men, among many others. Ralph is the author of the drum book Even in the Odds and contributes occasional articles to Modern Drummer magazine.

JOE PORCARO

Drum Department Co-Chair

Joe Porcaro's musical spectrum ranges from jazz and rock to opera and symphonic. He has recorded with jazz artists including Stan Getz, Gerry Mulligan, Freddie Hubbard, Don Ellis, Mike Manieri and rock/pop artists such as Toto and Madonna. His credits include numerous television shows and movies. One of the most highly regarded percussion and drum instructors in the world, Joe is the author of two drum books: Joe Porcaro's Drum Set Methods and Odd Times, and the instructional video Joe Porcaro on Drums.

Music Performance with an emphasis in Guitar

The guitar is one of the most popular instruments in history but also one of the hardest to master. At LACM students have the opportunity to perfect skills with a challenging combination of harmony, reading, and rhythm playing. The guitar student will also have access to a wide range of stylistic vocabulary while developing their own voice.

ADAM LEVY

Guitar Department Chair

Adam Levy has created a remarkable body of music over the past 30 years, and his talents continue to evolve today. He was recruited for Norah Jones' recording of "Come Away with Me," her multi-platinum, multi-Grammy debut on Blue Note Records. He remained in Jones' orbit for several years to come, recording two additional albums and three DVDs, and touring the world as a member of her Handsome Band. He also played on Tracy Chapman's mid-90s masterpiece New Beginning. Levy's guitar earns the limelight in the bluesy "Give Me One Reason," which won Best Rock Song at the 1997 Grammy Awards. Levy is also a respected writer and educator, with the instructional courses Play the Right Stuff (book/DVD), 50 Low-Down Rhythms (DVD/online course), and Rhythm Makeover (DVD/online course) to his credit, as well as numerous articles for Guitar Player, Fretboard Journal, and other top guitar magazines.

Music Composition with an emphasis in Songwriting

As a Songwriting major, students are trained to write hit songs in a variety of popular genres and learn the requisite skills needed to compose for the film and television industries. Faculty guides each student through the development of their own original material as well as instruction on the art of writing. Students can rehearse successfully pitching their work toward labels, licensing companies, and other performance artists.

ERIN WORKMAN

Songwriting Department Chair

Erin Workman's years of experience in the field of Artist Development include working alongside major labels and networks to hone the skills of new and established artists such as Zac Efron, DJ

Ashba (Sixx:AM), Drake Bell, Miley Cyrus, Sara Overall, Emma Roberts, Ashley Tisdale and many more. As former Senior Director of A&R at TAXI Music, former Senior Director of Education and VP of Industry Relations at Musicians Institute, and in her current role as an independent Education, Entertainment and A&R consultant, Erin has successfully applied her passion for guiding artists and projects to success. Her background as a staff songwriter for Gaylord Entertainment in Nashville and a Film/TV composer have given her the practical experience to teach solid song craft and the fine art of commercially competitive communication and strategic alliances. As a session singer and pianist, Erin can be heard working with artists as varied as Rufus Wainwright, Russell Crowe (TOFOG), Disney's Suite Life of Zack and Cody, Nickelodeon's Unfabulous with Emma Roberts, and many more. Erin's educational background includes a Bachelor of Arts in Music Education and Vocal Performance earned at CSU, Chico.

Music Production with an emphasis in Music Producing & Recording

As much as it is about composition, songwriting, engineering and arranging, music production is really about managing. The best producers know how to motivate and manage a creative team. The Music Producing & Recording major teaches students the historical and technical background needed to compete in the world of production but also to develop the necessary tools and techniques to take musical ideas to the next level.

Course Numbers (codes)

Courses numbered below 300 are classified as lower division courses. Courses numbered 300 and above are classified as upper division. In general, courses in the 100s are primarily for freshmen, 200s for sophomores, 300s for juniors, and 400s for seniors. If there is a letter or series of letters placed after the course number, these letters depict the specific program that is required to take the course (ex. B=Bass, D=Drums, G=Guitar, V=Vocals, BWW= Brass/Wood Winds, SW=Songwriting, MPR=Music Producing and Recording, CVM=Composing for Visual Media, IND=Music Industry).

Elective Policy

All electives are contingent upon the approval of the Dean, Department Head and Instructor.

Students may take courses outside of their program as an elective if:

- The course is not in the student's core program
- Students have met all required prerequisites for the course
- There are no scheduling conflicts
- Class size allows for additional students
- Lab fees will apply

Prerequisites Courses

Prerequisites are courses that must be taken before enrolling in a higher level course are listed in the course descriptions as prerequisites.

COMPOSITION (SONGWRITING)

(COMP-100MPR), (COMP-100CMV), (COMP-100SW), (COMP-100V), (COMP-100IND)

Songwriting 1

1.5 Credits

This course is designed to improve (or uncover) each student's songwriting ability through a study of the craft of songwriting, and to inform their careers by focusing on the various business aspects of songwriting. Students broaden their historical perspective of songwriting through a study of definitive songwriters of popular music, while performing and recording their own compositions weekly. Melody, structure, lyrics, collaboration, and the development of a "hook" are all looked at in great detail. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-101MPR), (COMP-101SW), (COMP-101V)

Songwriting 2

1.5 Credits

This course will continue the study of popular song construct, but will be applied directly to varied genres of music and the requisite shift in stylistic approach. Each genre demands varied approaches as applies to lyric, melody, hook construct and delivery, structure and chord progressions. Popular genres to be analyzed will include Pop, Pop/Rock, Modern Rock, Hip Hop, Dance/Electronica, Indie/Folk and Alternative Country. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/lab. Prerequisite: Songwriting 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-102SW), (COMP-102V)

Advanced Songwriting 1

1.5 Credits

Building on the concepts presented in Songwriting 1 & 2, this course will address more complex techniques of melodic and harmonic functionality, advanced lyric construction with attention to issues of meter and syllabic accents as applied to lead melodic phrasing, complex lyric imagery and metaphor construct, and more. Analysis of popular songs will be utilized to demonstrate and show marketable examples of how each concept can be practically applied to the student's original material. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/lab. Prerequisite: Songwriting 2. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-103)

Building Your DAW 1

2.0 Credits

Learning how to build a custom Digital Audio Workstation for the purpose of recording and producing their own song material is crucial to today's professional songwriter. Many writing opportunities require the writer to be able to deliver new edits, key changes, arrangement alterations and style variations in the matter of hours. Songwriters who are not proficient in basic engineering and producing skills and do not have a personal "rig" to work with will be at a disadvantage. This course will explore the options for software and hardware platforms in order to prepare the students for choosing the setup most effective for their personal style and skill set. This course will consist of two, two-hour weekly lectures. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-104S), (COMP-104V)

Guitar Accompaniment 1

1.5 Credits

Students will be introduced to the instrument based on each individual's level of experience. This course will focus primarily on utilizing the guitar as an accompanying instrument while in the songwriting process. Varied rhythmic patterns, chord progressions, fingerings, chord inversions, tunings and techniques will be studied and implemented into the student's original song material. This course will consist of one two-hour weekly lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-105SW), (COMP-105V)

Guitar Accompaniment 2

1.5 Credits

Building on the basic techniques learned in Guitar Accompaniment 1, students will begin to access more advanced concepts of rhythmic foundation and harmonic composition. Complimentary internal instrumental hooks and lead lines will also be studied as a means to create additional motifs within the student's original song material. Students will also learn how to accompany themselves on the guitar while singing, along with playing as part of a small ensemble in support of another singer/ songwriter. This course will consist of one two-hour weekly lecture. Prerequisite: Guitar Accompaniment 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-106)

History of Song 1

1.5 Credits

This course will offer students an introduction and overview of "the song" as its own independent entity according to varied cultures and regions. Some of the cultures that will be studied in relation to the creation and utilization of song will include African, Celtic, Latin and Asian origins. This course will begin an analysis on the various experimentations and improvisations that led to important evolutions in the development of popular songs in diverse societies. Specific songs that represent strong associations with social and political climates, societal expectations and cultural beliefs will be analyzed and discussed. This course will consist of two, one-hour weekly lectures. This course may be taken as an elective.

Course Descriptions: Composition (Songwriting)

(COMP-107)

History of Song 2

1.5 Credits

Continuing on the concepts introduced in History of Song 1, a further studying of the evolution of the popular song will be focused on. Students will be challenged to “connect the dots” between varying words, phrases, concepts and ideas to become viable stories. Learning how to become a great storyteller through song and studying some of the most effective and powerful story songs throughout popular music history will offer students the ability to find their own unique and essential “voice”. Studying the evolution and cadence of folk song material through the eras will compliment and contrast valuably with the more current use of storytelling in popular genres and cultures. This course will consist of two, one hour weekly lectures. Prerequisite: History of Song 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-108)

History of Song

3.5 Credits

Students will be introduced to the “melting pot” involved in the birth of the American song. From the tragedy of the slaves to those who survived the Irish potato famine, to the Great Depression and those persecuted, detained, abused and victimized throughout America’s history, we see how a “perfect storm” of crisis and cultural conflict led to and opened the door to the development of early American music. Genres studied according to the specific societal implications and musical results will include: Blues, Jazz, Folk, Country, R&B and Rock n Roll. The American pop song holds influences of these varied eras, genres and evolution of societal and political challenges. Students will learn of influences from the Irish/Afro sounds of New York City in the early 1800’s to the backfields of New Orleans and on to the cowboy songs of the western frontier, back again to current times and societal conflict as influence and topics for popular songs. This course will consist of two, one-hour lectures weekly. Prerequisite: History of Song 2.

(COMP-109), (COMP-110), (COMP-111)

Private Lesson 1, 2 & 3 (each)

2.0 Credits

The primary goal of each course is to act as reinforcement for the core curriculum of the Songwriting Department. Any questions involving individual weekly classes will be addressed, and the instructor will help each student keep up with the general pace of all classes in their program. Additional assignments may be given to students when appropriate. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(COMP-112)

Original Solo Showcase

1.5 Credits

This showcase will be prepared under the supervision and guidance of each student’s private lesson instructor, through weekly sessions designed to compile a final performance of three original songs. The performance will consist of the songwriters accompanying themselves on either piano or guitar, whichever is their primary instrument, while singing their own material. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-113)

Guitar Vocal Showcase

1.5 Credits

This showcase will be focused on using the guitar to accompany the student’s original song material. Through weekly meetings with their private instructor, each student will prepare a five-song set of original material that they will sing along with accompanying themselves with either the acoustic or electric guitar.

(COMP-114)

Small Band Showcase

1.5 Credits

Students will write charts for and rehearse with a small group of musicians (2-3) in weekly rehearsals, culminating in a final showcase of six original songs. According to how they would like to express and perform their original material, the instrumentation will be the students’ choice and they will act as both musical director and participant in the performance.

(COMP-115)

Master Class 1

0.5 Credits

In this Master Class series, LACM provides a unique and unparalleled experience where world-class Artists, Songwriters, Producers and Industry Veterans are invited to share their life’s work and experiences with our students. Classes and clinics are held by industry guests addressing the current and ever-evolving marketplace for the professional songwriter and recording artist.

(COMP-200)

Co-writing 1

2.0 Credits

This course will provide the foundation for learning how to collaborate with one or more songwriters on a project. In pairs and small groups, students will practice the sharing of ideas and strategizing complementary strengths and talents in order to achieve the most viable song concept possible. The business of royalty splits, songwriting agreements and co-production arrangements will also be addressed throughout this course. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-201)

Co-writing 2

2.0 Credits

Building on the concepts and experience of Co-Writing 1, students will advance to learning how to write for and with a recording artist or group. Concepts of writing to an artist’s specific vocal range, style, identity, lyric message and fan base will be practiced. Students will also learn to write as part of a songwriting and production team, one of today’s music industry formats that is widely practiced for major label record production. Prerequisite: Co-Writing 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-202)

Building Your DAW 2

2.0 Credits

In continuation of the research conducted on various recording platforms, software instruments, programs and hardware components pursued in Building Your DAW 1, students will make their final selections and will learn to set up their own portable recording studio. Exploring various software configurations and program interactions will be a focus, along with making use of different microphones and instrumentation in the recording process. Students will use their own DAW to produce a three-song demo project of their original material. This course will consist of two, two-hour weekly lectures/labs. Prerequisite: Building Your DAW 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

Course Descriptions: Composition (Songwriting)

(COMP-203)

History of Song 4

1.5 Credits

In this course, students will dissect and analyze a popular “hit” song each week. Each song will be discussed according to societal, cultural and political origins or influence of the particular era, genre or stylistic approach, lyric message, demographic of audience, and aspects of the artist in regard to song selection and interpretation. Students will have the opportunity to offer their own creative interpretations and “cover” arrangements of each song, both solo and in small group performances. Guest hit songwriters will appear consistently throughout this course to offer perspective and insight into their own song material and how to write unique, important and authentic songs in today’s music industry. This course will consist of two, one-hour lectures weekly. Prerequisite: History of Song 3.

(COMP-204), (COMP-205), (COMP-206)

Private Lesson 4, 5 & 6

2.0 Credits (each)

The primary goal of this course is to act as reinforcement for the core curriculum of the Songwriting Department. Any questions involving individual weekly classes will be addressed, and the instructor will help each student keep up with the general pace of all classes in their program. Additional assignments may be given to students when appropriate. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(COMP-207)

Music Business for Songwriting 1

2.0 Credits

This course focuses on music publishing with an introduction to the various income sources found in the music industry. Topics include: choosing between BMI and ASCAP, how to protect your song or song performance through copyright, recording artist deals and record companies production deals and song splits, mechanical and sync licensing, as well as understanding the varying types of common publishing deals.

(COMP-208)

Music Business for Songwriters 2

2.0 Credits

Building on the concepts presented in Music Business for Songwriters 1, this course will delve into the aspects of writing for varied media platforms and the practices and contracts associated with each. Topics will include: writing for music libraries, title replacement, single-song agreements, licensing deals, catalog acquisition, videogame custom composition agreements, film trailer and/or theme song composition and contracts. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Music Business for Songwriting 1.

(COMP-209)

Music Business Practicum 1

2.5 Credits

Students will have the opportunity to “work” in a hands on setting that mocks an active publishing and licensing company. Sourcing from talent within the LACM student body, each student will find one artist or songwriter with material that needs to be developed and promoted. Acting as part of the publishing company, students will learn to “pitch” material to specific projects and opportunities. Working with the LACM Music Licensing catalog, students will also act as publishing administrators in filing copyright forms, cue sheets and calculating royalty distributions.

(COMP-210), (COMP-211)

0.5 Credits (each)

In this Master Class series, LACM provides a unique and unparalleled experience where world-class Artists, Songwriters, Producers and Industry Veterans are invited to share their life’s work and experiences with our students. Classes and clinics are held by industry guests addressing the current and ever-evolving marketplace for the professional songwriter and recording artist.

(COMP-212)

Writing for Music Row 1

2.0 Credits

In the songwriting world of Nashville, the practices and fundamentals can vary greatly from the process and business in other regions. Students will learn the art of writing with multiple songwriting partners, “pitching” material to publishers and labels, writing only music or lyric per song, and communicating with session players using the Nashville Number System. While today’s Nashville music market supports many genres, the two most popular continue to be Country and Contemporary Christian. These two styles and markets will be focused on in both creative and business concepts. Industry guests from each genre and market will present their own professional experiences and answer student questions throughout this course.

(COMP-213)

Piano Vocal Showcase

1.5 Credits

This showcase will be focused on using the piano or keyboard to accompany the student’s original song material. Through weekly meetings with their private instructor, each student will prepare a five-song set of original material that they will sing along with accompanying themselves with either the piano or a keyboard.

(COMP-214)

Collaborative Showcase

1.5 Credits

Students will work in pairs to collaborate on original song material, creating a six-song set that they will write charts for and direct a small band to perform. Each student will be required to either sing or play an instrument as part of the presentation and must equally contribute to the song creation in the areas of lyric, melody, structure, and arrangement. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-215)

Industry Showcase

1.5 Credits

Students will have the option to either perform their own material with a band or enlist a vocalist and perform as part of the band in this showcase. The final performance of four original songs will be evaluated by a panel of industry members who will be focusing on areas including showmanship, song marketability, performance quality, set arrangement, and industry viability.

(COMP-216)

Advanced Songwriting 2

1.5 Credits

This course will focus on the structural, melodic and lyric aspects of creating a “hit” song in today’s music marketplace. Analysis of past radio chart successes and specific similarities between hits of varied genres and eras in popular music will offer the student perspective regarding how to apply the patterns in their own original song material. While there are no guarantees in the music industry, there are specific methods that have been employed by many past popular songwriters and musicians to insure the highest level of success possible. Students will learn how to craft a memorable and marketable hook, create a dynamically progressive structure, write a lyric that connects with a specific demographic audience, and more. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Advanced Songwriting 1.

Course Descriptions: Composition (Songwriting)

(COMP-217)

Vocals for Songwriters

2.0 Credits

This course will address the need of all songwriters to be able to adequately express their song ideas through vocal interpretation and performance. The basic techniques of tone, pitch center, enunciation, dynamics and melodic accuracy will be covered, along with the more advanced interpretative skills when acting as the primary performer of their own material as the Singer/Songwriter. Powerful expression of the lyric concept, along with varied dynamic and tonal qualities in the melodic approach will be assessed through weekly performances of the student's original song material.

(COMP-218)

Music Supervision

2.0 Credits

This course will cover creative and business concepts associated with the role of the Music Supervisor, including: what a music supervisor's primary job is, how to interact with the music supervisor on a Film/TV assignment, what a music supervisor needs to know and be qualified to do, and how to pursue becoming a music supervisor. Qualities a music supervisor must have will be studied extensively, as this can be a viable career path for many musicians and songwriters. Topics will include: critical "song to picture" analysis, expansive music genre and artist knowledge, ability to organize song clearances and cue sheets, confidence in communicating with directors and producers of Films and TV shows along with expressing specific needs to composers in regard to musical direction, tempo, keys, song edits and "sound alike" references. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-219)

Styles and Analysis

2.0 Credits

Varied musical styles and genres will be listened to, studied and analyzed in regard to structure, craft, lyric style, melodic construct and instrumentation. Styles of songwriting and artist interpretation or sound that are popular in today's music industry will be the focus, while an analysis of the roots leading to each developed style will also be a strong focus. This course will consist of one, two-hour weekly lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-300)

Introduction to Scoring For Picture

2.0 Credits

This course will be an introduction to skills, concepts, and composition techniques when scoring to a specific piece of visual media. Using a simple platform such as iMovie, students will practice scoring to a commercial, a video game portion, a film trailer, and a TV theme sequence. Topics will include: assigning appropriate emotional and dynamic musical setting to the visual, tracing and anticipating shifts in scene and action, developing leading motifs for setting a mood and expressing character identities or qualities through distinct melodies and instrumentation. This course will consist of one weekly two-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(COMP-301)

Music Business for Songwriters 3

2.0 Credits

Following Music Business for Songwriters 2, this course will cover topics including: work-for-hire agreements, understanding the Musicians Union when contracting with demo session players, common agreements with major Film and TV companies, advanced royalty allocation and distribution, when to seek an attorney or manager/agent and how to make most effective use of the relationship with each, along with catalog compilation in varied genres/formats. A study of international markets applied to royalties, copyright, and contracts will also be a focus in this course. This course will consist of one weekly two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Music Business for Songwriters 2.

(COMP-302)

Music Business for Songwriters 4

2.0 Credits

The independent songwriter must learn how to be a viable and efficient businessperson. This course will cover concepts of business accounting procedures and tools, state and federal tax laws for the independent contractor, business investments and growth plans, strategic partnerships with like-minded professionals and companies, corporate music opportunities and more. The course series will conclude with a practical, hands-on application of concepts in the compilation of all needed business agreement and contract templates, a complete short and long term business plan, along with a song catalog that is ready for promotion to the varied media sources addressed in Music Business for Songwriters 1-3. This course will consist of one weekly two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Music Business for Songwriters 3.

(COMP-303), (COMP-304), (COMP-305)

Private Lesson 7, 8 & 9

2.0 Credits (each)

The primary goal of this course is to act as reinforcement for the core curriculum of the Songwriting Department. Any questions involving individual weekly classes will be addressed, and the instructor will help each student keep up with the general pace of all classes in their program. Additional assignments may be given to students when appropriate. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(COMP-306)

Pro Artist Showcase

1.5 Credits

Taking the critique and evaluation of the industry member panel in Industry Showcase 1, students will focus on incorporating the feedback into at least two of the songs from the original set and adding three more original songs. Concentration will be placed in areas of stylistic approach, instrumentation, advanced song arrangements, marketability in today's music industry and connection with the audience.

(COMP-307)

Music Business Practicum 2

2.5 Credits

Students will promote their own song catalog, website, social media and promotion materials utilizing the marketing and business plans created in previous courses. Course Descriptions: Electives

(COMP-308)

Music Marketing for Songwriters 1

2.0 Credits

In this course, students will learn the essential elements of music marketing that are critical in optimal marketing of both themselves and their music. Various marketing channels and media such as physical versus digital advertising, PR, social media and promotion campaigns will be compared and contrasted. Developing a unique brand identity will be addressed as well, laying the groundwork for building a strategic marketing plan. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

(COMP-400)

Music Marketing for Songwriters 2

2.0 Credits

In this course, each student will begin to develop their own personal marketing and promotion plan for their music. Even if the student wishes only to write for other artists and projects, the competition in the industry is fierce and every writer will need to promote themselves and their music uniquely and aggressively. Analyzing the successful marketing and promotion plans of known artists, projects, songwriters and producers will offer valuable perspective and inspiration for the development of their own customized marketing plan. Students will build a simple website and will customize various social media platforms in preparation for launching their marketing campaign. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Music Marketing for Songwriters 1.

(COMP-401)

Music Marketing for Songwriters 3

2.0 Credits

This course represents the final compilation of all marketing and promotion materials created and developed in Music Marketing for Songwriters 1-2. Their own logo, brand, social media and website, complete with audio and video materials, will be “launched” and viewed by their LACM peers. The effectiveness of this launch and requisite materials will be evaluated by a panel of industry professionals at the conclusion of this course. In addition, aspects of cross promotion and strategic partnerships with varied companies and organizations will be presented. Students will learn which companies and organizations might provide added promotion benefits, while understanding how to “pitch” themselves and their unique talents in a way that might be most effective. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Music Marketing for Songwriters 2.

(COMP-402)

Songwriting Session Arrangement

2.0 Credits

Every songwriter needs to learn the art of translating their material to a format that will communicate to the producer, engineer and players involved with creating the song demo. Creating and compiling clear chord and structure charts will be addressed and practiced. Learning the roles of each musician, the engineer and producer, and learning the language needed to speak to each effectively will be practiced in a live and practical “hands on” studio setting. Confident demonstration of melody, lyric, dynamics and structure of each song will also be a focus. This course will consist of two weekly two-hour lecture and lab.

(COMP-403)

Arranging for Contemporary ENS

2.0 Credits

This course will introduce the varied aspects of each popular instrument group in a Contemporary Ensemble: namely Guitar, Bass, Drums, Piano/Keyboards and Vocals. Understanding how the rhythm section is built, how chord progressions and song structure can be enhanced by the performance approach in each instrument group, assigning complimentary melodic counterpoint and internal hooks in the song arrangement, along with acquiring a working understanding of the limitations and potential of each instrument group will all be concepts that will be focused on throughout this course. This course consists of one weekly two-hour lecture.

(COMP-404)

Internship

4.0 Credits

Students will be evaluated according to their skill sets and career objectives, to be placed in a practical internship with an active Los Angeles music company. Students will work on location at this company for a minimum of four hours per week and will be supervised and evaluated by that staff. Throughout the quarter, the student will report to a faculty advisor regarding specific challenges and receiving guidance on improving their competitive edge for future employment possibilities.

(COMP-405), (COMP-406), (COMP-407)

Private Lesson 10, 11 & 12

2.0 Credits (each)

The primary goal of this course is to act as reinforcement for the core curriculum of the Songwriting Department. Any questions involving individual weekly classes will be addressed, and the instructor will help each student keep up with the general pace of all classes in their program. Additional assignments may be given to students when appropriate. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

Applied Sight Reading 1, 2 & 3

2.0 Credits (each)

Applied Sight Reading (ASR) 1, 2 & 3 are designed to aid in the development of the drum student's rhythmic and rudimental reading abilities. ASR drills the material in a group format so all students are engaged and playing together. Students begin by focusing on single line reading and notation theory, and are introduced to rudimental etudes that continue throughout the course and gradually increase in difficulty. Students are also introduced to orchestral snare drum etudes, which are drilled each day. This course consists of four, 30-minute labs per week. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-125)

Groove Perspectives

1.0 Credit

Groove Perspectives provides an overview of the bass player/drummer relationship, guiding the student to a deeper understanding and awareness of the role and function of the bass - from the perspective of the drummer. Results will be a more confident approach to working with the drummer to create a "groove" and/or "pocket" for the music at hand. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture.

Private Lesson 1, 2 & 3

2.0 Credits (each)

Throughout each level of this course, students meet one hour per week in a one-on-one setting for private instruction. Private lesson instruction is designed to reinforce and compliment the variety of subjects and techniques encountered in the program, as well as to allow the student to explore more specific topics in depth with their instructor. Students are given the opportunity to change private instructors every six months, if so desired. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

1.0 Credit (each)

This six level course involves the study and application of foundational technique on the bass guitar. During the first three levels, students are taught proper hand/body positioning, and learn to develop flexibility, endurance, and muscle/tactile memory. Left/right hand techniques are addressed, as is a thorough exploration of the neck through scales, arpeggios, patterns, and the like. The course also includes development of basic tone production, slapping, tapping, and chording, as well as the use of harmonics and other more specialized techniques. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

1.0 Credit (each)

The Traditional Big Band ensemble to date, continues to be the standard instrumentation in most live and studio environments globally. The instrumentation may look like a big band, but will sound like everything else. Students will rehearse and perform repertoire that includes but is not limited to: Ellington, Earth, Wind & Fire, Tito Puente and many other traditional and contemporary composers. As well you will be given the opportunity to combine with other forms of art such as dance and film. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-135), (MUS-136), (MUS-137)

Small Ensemble 1, 2 & 3

2.0 Credits (each)

Students will prepare and perform repertoire from widely varying small ensemble literature. From woodwind trios, quartets & the traditional Brass quintets to Avant-Garde small ensembles, students will receive practical training in traditional ensembles as well as creative cutting edge small groups. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent.

Applied Sight Reading 1, 2 & 3

2.0 Credits (each)

Applied Sight Reading guides Bass students in developing the needed skills/abilities to read and interpret music 'by sight'. Focus on note and rhythm recognition, phrasing, articulation, reading ahead, chart reading/stylistic interpretation, chart reading, form/roadmap comprehension, etc. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-141)

Contemporary Styles Ensemble 1

2.0 Credits

This 2 credit course introduces the student to music of a contemporary nature, featuring many artists and their music from the mid 1960's to the present. Stylistically speaking, the music being studied and performed exemplifies the fusion of jazz, rock, R&B and Latin along with influences from the Middle East, India and, of course, Africa. In addition, a style known as ECM, which is actually the name of a German record company, will also be studied. The student will be presented with a tune each week that will be the topic for the lecture. The discussion will examine the traits of the music from all angles, including stylistic influences, form, performance factors, feel and finally how the drummer is interpreting the music. Then, the student will perform the tune with a professional guitar and bass player. Artists to be studied include Herbie Hancock, Pat Metheny, Dave Holland, John Scofield, Wayne Shorter, Chick Corea and many more.

(MUS-142)

Music Listening 1

1.0 Credit

This class is designed to develop active and critical listening by having students study different genres of music from the perspective of the audience, the composer, the producer and the instrumentalist. Emphasis will be on writing short reviews of live and recorded performances and a broad study of orchestral music, jazz, world music, pop, rock and R&B. This class meets for a one hour lecture per week.

(MUS-143)

Hand Percussion

1.0 Credit

At LACM, we believe it is essential to play all Latin styles with authenticity, and best way to do this is to learn the proper rhythms on their instruments and then apply them to the drum set. This two level course is designed as a "hands on" class which introduces the drummer to a variety of important hand percussion instruments. Students are taught about Afro-Cuban, Caribbean, and Brazilian rhythms using the hand percussion instruments specific to each style. A secondary focus is placed on various instruments and rhythms from Asia, India, and Europe. Basic techniques on these instruments are learned in order to join with other students to perform in an ensemble settings. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-144), (MUS-145), (MUS-146)

Playing Techniques 1, 2 & 3

1.0 Credit (each)

The Playing Techniques courses aim to study everything pertaining to the proper technical performance of music at the drum set, or what is referred to as the "nuts and bolts" of drum set playing skills. This series is at the center of the LACM drum program, and prepares students for all other core and performance-oriented classes. Topics covered are proper limb motions (hands and feet), sticking types, the importance of balance and coordination, touch and sound, developing vocabulary, and much more. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-147)

Drum Transcription 1

1.0 Credit

Musicians are often counted on to prepare a lot of music in different styles for rehearsals, performances and recording sessions. This class is designed to develop these skills with continued studies in rhythmic dictation, harmonic and melodic dictation, basic chart writing and song form. Students will listen to artists for their perspective instruments and learn to transcribe musical phrases that provide insight to musicianship, new playing techniques and composition. A final transcription will be performed during testing week. This class meets for a one hour lecture per week. This course may be taken as an elective.

2.0 Credits (each)

Applied Sight Reading (ASR) 1, 2 & 3 are designed to aid in the development of the guitar student's rhythmic and melodic reading abilities. ASR drills the material in a group format so all students are engaged and playing together. Students begin by focusing on single line reading and notation theory, and are introduced to etudes that continue throughout the course and gradually increase in difficulty. This course consists of four, 30-minute labs per week. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-151)

Slow Burn Soloing

1.0 Credit

Every guitar player should know how to craft a solo that tells a story. Storytelling means having a clear beginning, middle, and ending—maybe with some drama and perhaps even some humor too. That kind of soloing helps us connect with our listeners, and that's what the Essentials: Slow Burn Soloing course is all about. Jeff Beck, Larry Carlton, Otis Rush, James Burton, and John Mayer are but a few of the guitarists considered masters of this approach. Learning to create slow burn solos is essential because it helps us think in more compositional ways, beyond the guitar—not just playing licks but digging deeper and making more musical choices.

(MUS-152)

Jazz Guitar Prep

1.0 Credit

In this 10-week course for Guitar majors, students will be introduced to key aspects of jazz performance on the instrument—including essential chord voicings for diatonic 7th chords (maj7, min7, and so on) as well as common fingerings for diatonic modal scales (Ionian, Dorian, and so on). Students will learn the music theory behind these chords and scales. A handful of “standards” (classic jazz songs) will be analyzed in class to demonstrate how these chords and scales are to be applied. Some portion of each week's class time will include listening to landmark jazz recordings. Such listening is essential part of comprehending the idiom. This course consists of one 60-minute lecture weekly.

(MUS-153)

Warm-Up Guitar

1.0 Credit

It's essential to warm up your hands, ears, and musical mind prior to any performance, recording session, or extended practice session. Warm-up for Guitar is designed to help students develop and personalize their own warm-up routines. Weekly classes will be a combination of lecture and demonstration. In-class assignments will be given to help prepare students for three exams during the quarter. All material on these exams will be from class lectures and exercises done collectively in class.

(MUS-154), (MUS-155), (MUS-156)

String Theory 1, 2 & 3

1.0 Credit (each)

In this series students study the practical application of harmony and theory as it pertains to the guitar neck. Subjects include major, minor, diminished and whole tone scales as well as arpeggios and voicing development. In addition, String Theory addresses all contemporary guitar techniques including alternate picking, sweeping picking, legato technique, string bending, and vibrato. Coursework includes application of fret board harmony and techniques using etudes and exercises. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-157)

Applied Vocology Performance

1.0 Credit

This course aims to improve skills in vocal performance through the practical application of vocal technique while singing with a band. Students perform one song (from their Ensemble Workshops or Songwriting classes) per week and work with the instructor to address technical issues of breath management, intonation, resonance, registration, tone quality, diction, and artistic expression. This course consists of a weekly Ensemble Workshop.

(MUS-158)

Music Notation 1

1.0 Credit

Music Notation is a two-level course designed to help the student improve their ability to notate music. Level 1 begins with hand notation and quickly moves to the computer notation software, Sibelius. Classes are a combination of lecture, demonstration and student participation. Topics covered are (but are not limited to) the strokes required to write clefs, accidentals, time signatures, note heads, flags, beams, ledger lines, brackets, dots, rests, multiple bar rests, dynamic markings, slurs, ties, articulations, repeats, etc. Students will write a lead sheet, containing melody, lyrics, chords, and clear form (utilizing intros, endings, repeats, D.S./D.C., coda). Layout of the music is stressed as well as spacing and materials. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-160)

Gospel Choir 1

1.0 Credit (each)

Students learn, rehearse, and perform music specific to the gospel genre. Emphasis is placed on the history of gospel ensemble singing, including the traditional spiritual. Choir members analyze gospel music and learn about gospel style singing, both past and present. Additional emphasis is placed on understanding the relationship between gospel music, the blues, jazz, and the cultural context in which gospel music functions. This course consists of a weekly ensemble. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-161), (MUS-162)

Vocology Workshop 1 & 2

2.0 Credits

This two level course offers a safe haven in which to explore, develop, and expand the voice. Students gain a practical understanding of vocal anatomy, function and acoustics, and work one-on-one with the instructor to identify and overcome vocal challenges presented by the songs assigned in other classes. Special emphasis is placed on understanding the root causes of various vocal problems (i.e. faulty intonation, breathiness, poor resonance), and how to rectify them through efficient coordination of the breath, laryngeal muscles and vocal tract. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-163), (MUS-164), (MUS-165)

Sight Singing 1, 2 & 3

1.0 Credit (each)

This three level series is designed to develop the ability to read, hear, recognize and write basic melodic, rhythmic and chordal structures. In level one students develop the ability to sight-sing through major scales utilizing stepwise motion and perform and transcribe rhythms in simple meters (4/4, 3/4, 2/4 and 2/2). Level two focuses on singing major, minor and medieval modes and the development of melodic, rhythmic and intervallic dictation skills. In level three students further develop the skills to sight-sing major, minor and medieval modes from diatonic leaps through chromatically altered pitches using solfege syllables and Curwen hand signs. This course consists of a two, weekly one-hour lectures/labs. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

The Foundation of Jazz Drumming

1.0 Credit

This course explores the historical evolution of jazz drumming from early Dixieland, to Bebop and beyond, in an effort to reinforce the stylistic attributes of jazz. Famous jazz drummers such as Philly Joe Jones, Art Blakey and Max Roach will be studied both through listening and transcriptions. Students develop their facility and vocabulary by studying basic jazz techniques, including ride patterns and left hand comping, basic independence and coordination, and brush technique. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-169)

Synth Bass 1

1.0 Credit

This two level course introduces the basics of functional Synthesizer Bass playing with an emphasis on real-world application, an important addition to the skills offered by today's professional bassist. The student is guided through basic analog and app-based synth operation, and given an overview of the history, development, and most influential artists. Using synth bass repertoire as a vehicle, the student will learn to emulate and perform synth lines from the classics through today's most current synth bass trends. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-170)

Jazz Bass Prep

1.0 Credit

This course provides an overview of the basics of jazz bass playing, in order to prepare the student for the jazz style class. Topics covered include understanding the walking bass line, swing feel, time keeping and the role the bass in jazz, common turnarounds, the ii-V-I cadence, chord scale application, standard jazz song form, and beginning improv/use of guide tones in soloing. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

Master Class

0.5 Credits (each)

In this Master Class series, LACM provides a unique and unparalleled experience where world-class Artists and Industry Veterans are invited to share their life's work and experiences with our students. Classes and clinics are held by industry guests addressing the current and ever-evolving marketplace for the professional musician.

(MUS-174)

Classic Drum Grooves

1.0 Credit

This comprehensive course examines the great drum grooves of contemporary music and the drummers who created and performed them. Students will listen, transcribe and perform selected grooves. Drummers studied include: Jeff Porcaro, Steve Gadd, Hal Blaine, John Bonham and Bernard Purdie. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-200)

Arranging & Orchestration 2

2.0 Credits

This course is designed so that students gain the ability to arrange and orchestrate a coherent vocal/instrumental composition for a rhythm section with six horns (plus doubles, more specifically: piano, bass, drums, guitar, 2 trumpets and/or flugelhorns, alto sax, tenor sax, baritone sax with any combinations of flutes and clarinets, and 1 trombone). This course will start students on the road to listening to music through color as well as sound. Students learn about the various roles of the woodwind section and the most effective techniques in which to voice them. Students also explore the many colors achieved by the blending of saxes, flutes, and clarinets, and the possibilities from blending the woodwinds with each other as well as with the brass section. In addition, students learn the various ways in which to score the woodwind and brass sections, whether accompanying a vocalist or in an instrumental arrangement. By the conclusion of this course, each student will have arranged and orchestrated a musical composition and have it professionally recorded. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Arranging & Orchestration 1.

(MUS-201)

Arranging & Orchestration 3

2.0 Credits

This continuation of the "Arranging & Orchestration 2" course is designed to prepare students to arrange and orchestrate for an augmented ensemble. This includes oboe or English horn, bassoon, French horn, tuba or bass trombone, and percussion. This course presents the possibilities one can achieve when combining jazz and classical elements to form a cohesive musical work. Students learn about the various colors of the newly introduced instruments, their ranges and transpositions, and explore the art of combining the vast array of colors each instrument has to offer. Students also continue to learn the art of linear vs. block writing, while gaining a better understanding of arranging/orchestration through listening and analysis. By the conclusion of this course, each student will have arranged and orchestrated a musical composition and have it professionally recorded. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Arranging & Orchestration 2.

(MUS-202)

Arranging & Orchestration 4

2.0 Credits

This continuation of the "Arranging & Orchestration 3" course is designed to prepare students to arrange and orchestrate for the string family (including violins, violas, celli and acoustic bass), as well as voices (soprano, alto, tenor and bass). During the course students learn about the many qualities of the string family, including their individual colors, the blending of their colors, and the endless possibilities they possess, from slow, lyrical playing to the fastest, most difficult passages. In addition, students learn about arranging and orchestrating for the human voice, and explore the beautiful colors and timbres of the voice from the soprano down to the bass. This course also goes more in-depth regarding the linear approach to orchestration, and gives students a better understanding of arranging and orchestration for strings and voices through listening and analysis. By the conclusion of this course, each student will have arranged and orchestrated a musical composition and have it professionally recorded. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Arranging & Orchestration 3.

1.0 Credit

During this course, students are divided into various ensembles, work to hone their skills as performers, and improve those skills from a production standpoint. Classes involve a combination of lecture, demonstration, and ensemble participation, in which students prepare a 20- minute set for their final concert. This requires a reasonable amount of rehearsal outside of the classroom, and must include at least one original element. The culmination of this course involves a professional recording studio session, during which each group will record their song(s), and the final concert. This course consists of a weekly, band rehearsal/class. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-211)

Original Project 2

1.0 Credit

As a continuation of Original Project 1, students are divided into various ensembles, work to hone their skills as performers, and improve those skills from a production standpoint. Classes involve a combination of lecture, demonstration, and ensemble participation, in which students prepare a 20- minute set for their final concert. This requires a reasonable amount of rehearsal outside of the classroom, and must include at least one original element. Rhythm Studies 1

1.0 Credit

This course instructs the musician in developing fluency while playing in odd-meter time signatures (e.g. 5/4, 7/4, 9/8, 11/8, 15/8 etc...). The class is exposed to different feels and time concepts, and is challenged to play in a variety of odd, extended, or shifting meters, with the goal of applying these concepts to their own musical endeavors. Styles vary from standards performed in odd meters (as performed by artists such as Brad Mehldau) to contemporary fusion styles of players like John McLaughlin, John Scofield and Michael Brecker. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and two Ensemble Workshops.

Styles and Analysis of Musical Composition 1

2.0 Credits

This course is designed to provide students with a better understanding of how the principles of music theory are applied to create a coherent musical composition. This is achieved by analyzing classical, pop, and jazz music by composers such as Bach, Mozart, Ellington, Gershwin, and Stevie Wonder. The class also traces the evolution of melody and harmony, and sees the connection that they have shared for the last 600 years. In addition, students learn the importance of form in musical composition, and the various shapes it has taken through the musical periods and genres. Throughout the course, students learn how to construct and harmonize melodies, and how to fit melodies and harmonies into various types of musical form. At the conclusion of this course, students compose an original musical piece which is then professionally recorded. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

(MUS-216)

Physical Performance

1.0 Credit (each)

Using the fundamentals of physical performance, students will learn balancing and core exercises, how to block movement on stage, arranging and choreographing background sections, and overall physical communication with each other, band members and the audience. This class also serves as an excellent opportunity for students to work on material for their other classes throughout the program. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/ensemble.

(MUS-217)

Three Horn Band

2.0 Credits

The main objective of this course is to give students the valuable experience of working with a professional horn section. Students perform a variety of challenging music and are mentored during each performance by a faculty member. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour ensemble.

1.0 Credit (each)

This two level course is designed to guide students through the practical, technical, and creative aspects of studio performance. Topics covered include session preparation, taking direction from the artist and/or producer, understanding studio equipment, instrument tone/selection/maintenance, as well as use of direct boxes, amps, and effects. Weekly projects are assigned to record and submit for evaluation. This course consists of a biweekly two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-230), (MUS-231), (MUS-232)

Bass Technique 4, 5 & 6

1.0 Credit (each)

This six level course involves the study and application of foundational technique on the bass guitar. During the first three levels, students are taught proper hand/body positioning, and learn to develop flexibility, endurance, and muscle/tactile memory. Left/right hand techniques are addressed, as is a thorough exploration of the neck through scales, arpeggios, patterns, and the like. The course also includes development of basic tone production, slapping, tapping, and chording, as well as the use of harmonics and other more specialized techniques. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-233), (MUS-234), (MUS-235)

Big Band 4, 5 & 6

1.0 Credit (each)

The Traditional Big Band ensemble to date, continues to be the standard instrumentation in most live and studio environments globally. The instrumentation may look like a big band, but will sound like everything else. Students will rehearse and perform repertoire that includes but is not limited to: Ellington, Earth, Wind & Fire, Tito Puente and many other traditional and contemporary composers. As well you will be given the opportunity to combine with other forms of art such as dance and film. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-236), (MUS-237)

Improvisation 1 & 2

1.0 Credit (each)

From Louis Armstrong to Ornette Coleman and Art Tatum to Herbie Hancock; students will study the history of great improvisers and the eras from which they derive in depth. Students will learn how and why these improvisers were effective and chronicle their musical contributions. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course

(MUS-238)

Small Ensemble 4

2.0 Credits

Students will prepare and perform repertoire from widely varying small ensemble literature. From woodwind trios, quartets & the traditional Brass quintets to Avant-Garde small ensembles, students will receive practical training in traditional ensembles as well as creative cutting edge small groups.

(MUS-239), (MUS-240)

Wind Ensemble 1 & 2

2.0 Credits (each)

LACM's wind ensembles create amazing opportunities for growth. Students will be vigorously challenged in multiple disciplines. Beyond performing traditional literature on your primary instrument, this environment requires participation on a double. LACM students will utilize wind ensembles for much more than performing. Cutting your teeth in clinic techniques, Conducting and composing are not only encouraged, but required for two semesters. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-241D), (MUS-242D), (MUS-243D)

Applied Sight Reading 4, 5 & 6

2.0 Credits (each)

Building on the concepts and repertoire learned in Applied Sight Reading (ASR) 1, 2 & 3, ASR 4, 5 & 6 continues to aid in the development of the drum student's rhythmic and rudimental reading abilities. ASR drills the material in a group format so all students are engaged and playing together. Students are introduced to more challenging rudimental etudes that continue throughout the course and gradually increase in difficulty. Students are also introduced to orchestral snare drum etudes, which are drilled each day. This course consists of four, 30-minute labs per week. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-244)

Contemporary Styles Ensemble 2

2.0 Credits

This course continues to expose the student to music of a contemporary nature, featuring many artists and their music from the mid 1960's to the present. Stylistically speaking, the music being studied and performed exemplifies the fusion of jazz, rock, R&B and Latin along with influences from the Middle East, India and, of course, Africa. In addition, a style known as ECM, which is actually the name of a German record company, will also be studied. The student will be presented with a tune each week that will be the topic for the lecture. The discussion will examine the traits of the music from all angles, including stylistic influences, form, performance factors, feel and finally how the drummer is interpreting the music. Then, the student will perform the tune with a professional guitar and bass player. The course begins by exploring and performing music with standard time signatures. Eventually, odd meters, atypical forms, etc. will be studied and performed. The goal is to make the student become a better interpreter of the music and introduce all the new contemporary styles that are important in today's music. Artists to be studied include Herbie Hancock, Pat Metheny, Dave Holland, John Scofield, Wayne Shorter, Chick Corea and many more. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-245), (MUS-246)

Ensemble Reading Technique 1 & 2

1.0 Credit (each)

This series of courses teach proper phrasing and chart interpretation in small and large ensemble performances. Great focus is placed on the reading and practice of written rhythmic phrases in jazz, rock, and latin styles, including section and ensemble figures, and chart interpretation and terminology. Play-along recordings are used in class, as well as numerous ensemble performance examples for demonstration and reinforcement. Further focus is given to the recognition and understanding of song forms and basic 'road map' charts, during which students are taught how to hear form without reading it, and transcribe the music heard. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-247)

Music Listening 2

1.0 Credit

This class is designed to develop active and critical listening by having students study different genres of music from the perspective of the audience, the composer, the producer and the instrumentalist. Emphasis will be on writing short reviews of live and recorded performances and a broad study of orchestral music, jazz, world music, pop, rock and R&B. This class meets for a one hour lecture per week.

Course Descriptions: Music Performance

(MUS-248)

Studio Drums 1

1.0 Credit

Studio Drums 1 is the first of this two level course that addresses the conditions of the studio workplace while teaching the procedures for drum tuning and playing with click tracks and sequencers. Another major focus is given to chart reading and the creative process of chart and style interpretation. The class also includes instruction in the studio environment for better demonstration and highlights the interactions between producers, songwriters, engineers, and musicians, in the music making process. This course consists of a weekly one or two-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-249), (MUS-250), (MUS-251)

Playing Techniques 4, 5 & 6

1.0 Credit (each)

The Playing Techniques courses aim to study everything pertaining to the proper technical performance of music at the drum set, or what is referred to as the “nuts and bolts” of drum set playing skills. This series is at the center of the LACM drum program, and prepares students for all other core and performance-oriented classes. Topics covered are proper limb motions (hands and feet), sticking types, the importance of balance and coordination, touch and sound, developing vocabulary, and much more. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-252)

Drum Transcription 2

1.0 Credit

Musicians are often counted on to prepare a lot of music in different styles for rehearsals, performances and recording sessions. This class is designed to develop these skills with continued studies in rhythmic dictation, harmonic and melodic dictation, basic chart writing and song form. Students will listen to artists for their perspective instruments and learn to transcribe musical phrases that provide insight to musicianship, new playing techniques and composition. This class meets for a one hour lecture per week. Prerequisite: Drum Transcription 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-253G), (MUS-254G), (MUS-255G)

Applied Sight Reading 4, 5 & 6

2.0 Credits (each)

Applied Sight Reading (ASR) 4, 5 & 6 are designed to aid in the development of the guitar student's rhythmic and melodic reading abilities. ASR drills the material in a group format so all students are engaged and playing together. Students begin by focusing on single line reading and notation theory, and are introduced to etudes that continue throughout the course and gradually increase in difficulty. This course consists of four, 30-minute labs per week. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-256)

Composition

1.0 Credit

This course was specifically designed to meet the emerging needs of the contemporary musician and aspiring composer. While giving an overview of compositional devices, this course also works to emphasize creativity by focusing on melody, rhythm and harmony, and their relationship to form. Compositional analysis and weekly assignments culminate in a final recording project. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-257)

Fingerstyle Guitar

1.0 Credit

This course examines the acoustic guitar fingerstyle approaches from blues and ragtime to contemporary styles, including “Travis” picking. Artists examined include Robert Johnson, Stefan Grossman, Duck Baker, James Taylor, Paul Simon, and Tommy Emmanuel. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-258)

Intro to Performance

1.0 Credit

This course addresses student's specific areas of weakness in playing. Students will concentrate on how to interpret lead sheets and add expression to melody playing. Rhythm playing and fundamental improvisation techniques are also a focus. A variety of musical styles are discussed and performed as necessary. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture/lab.

(MUS-259)

Circle Singing 1

1.0 Credit

This performance-based class will introduce and explore a creative area of vocal improvisation, composition and performance called circle singing, originally developed by Bobby McFerrin and the members of his vocal group Voicestra. Circle singing cultivates the traditional skills requisite for ensemble singing—intonation, dynamics, blend, and sensitivity, and builds the fundamentals of musicianship, including composition, harmony, counterpoint, intonation, improvisation, and deep, responsive listening. Using primarily the human voice and body percussion, contrapuntal motifs will be created within the four vocal sections (SATB), and students will learn the basics of participating and building these forms. The course will include some sight singing, but will rely foundationally on ear training (deep listening), musical communication, and the cultivation of improvisation.

MUS-260)

Circle Singing 2

1.0 Credit

This course will build on the foundations established in Circle Singing I, with emphasis on the varieties and possibilities inherent in the larger form. Students will learn to participate, lead and create their own circle songs and their multifarious variations. Deep listening and analysis will be incorporated in greater depth, to augment the students' other musical curriculum, and a large variety of exercises will be used to deepen the students understanding and mastery of Circle Singing.

(MUS-261)

Studio Guitar 1

1.0 Credit

This course emphasizes practical studio techniques, creativity in the studio, and practical performance techniques. Subjects include studio equipment, guitar gear, effects and tone production, acoustic guitar performance, microphone placement, as well as layering parts and soloing in the studio. Students are assigned weekly projects to record and submit for critique and evaluation. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and Ensemble Workshop. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-262), (MUS-263), (MUS-264)

String Theory 4, 5 & 6

1.0 Credit (each)

In this series students study the practical application of harmony and theory as it pertains to the guitar neck. Subjects include major, minor, diminished and whole tone scales as well as arpeggios and voicing development. In addition, String Theory addresses all contemporary guitar techniques including alternate picking, sweeping picking, legato technique, string bending, and vibrato. Coursework includes application of fret board harmony and techniques using etudes and exercises. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-265)

Background Vocals

1.0 Credit

This course is designed to prepare vocalists to be effective background singers in today's music industry, and to understand the differences between live and studio backing vocal performances. Students strengthen their ability to blend, match tones, lock rhythms, implement nuances, use dynamics, and arrange vocal parts on the spot. Each week students are expected to sight-sing four to eight-bar sections of a chart, as well as learn parts by ear. Course material consists of well-known songs in which the background vocal parts have a significant influence on the lead singer's performance, as well as the song's overall popularity. This course consists of two, weekly Ensemble Workshops.

(MUS-266)

The Duo Ensemble

1.5 Credits

This course aims to explore the freedom found when performing within a duo. Instrumentation during class includes voice/piano, voice/guitar, voice/bass, and voice/drums pairings. Special emphasis is placed on communication during rubato material, establishing a solid groove and tempo, duo improvisation, and arrangement development. This course consists of two, weekly one and a half hour Ensemble Workshops.

(MUS-267)

Gospel Choir 2

1.0 Credit

Students learn, rehearse, and perform music specific to the gospel genre. Emphasis is placed on the history of gospel ensemble singing, including the traditional spiritual. Choir members analyze gospel music and learn about gospel style singing, both past and present. Additional emphasis is placed on understanding the relationship between gospel music, the blues, jazz, and the cultural context in which gospel music functions. This course consists of a weekly one-hour rehearsal. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-268)

Showcase

2.0 Credits

Under the guidance and critique of an experienced performer and vocal coach, students bring all they have learned to the stage. Students choose each week from a variety of song options, and will be "judged" on their performances – both by the instructor, as well as guest instructor/artist. The course culminates in a final concert before a panel of high-profile guest judges. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/ensemble. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-270), (MUS-271)

Studio Singing Skills/Studio Singing Final Project

2.0 Credits (each)

This two level course introduces students to the real world of vocal studio production. The course begins with the fine-tuning of each song students choose to record by working on song structure, arrangements, melody, and lyrics. As the class continues, these songs are recorded and produced into a professional master recording. Students are graded on their creativity, compositional skills, studio vocal techniques and the sound quality of their final mixed songs. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and two-hour lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-272)

Synth Bass 2

1.0 Credit

Synth Bass 2 continues discussing functional Synthesizer Bass playing with an emphasis on real-world application, an important addition to the skills offered by today's professional bassist. The student is guided through basic analog and app-based synth operation, and given an overview of the history, development, and most influential artists. Using synth bass repertoire as a vehicle, the student will learn to emulate and perform synth lines from the classics through today's most current synth bass trends. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Synth Bass 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-273)

Vocal Improvisation 1

1.0 Credit

This course serves as an introductory course to learning the skills required for students to be able to improvise over chord changes. Vocal Improvisation 1 builds upon knowledge from harmony, theory, ear training, and sight singing courses to develop the ear and voice so students are able to musically express themselves. The course will cover the blues scale and its permutations, tension availability, writing and singing guide tones, motivic development, and improvisation over many standard chord changes in combination with beginner written and oral jazz transcription. Students will interact, improvise, and perform weekly with a live band. This course consists of a weekly two-hour ensemble workshop. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-274), (MUS-275), (MUS-276)

Master Class 4, 5 & 6

0.5 Credits (each)

In this Master Class series, LACM provides a unique unparalleled experience where world-class Artists and Industry Veterans are invited to share their life's work and experiences with our students. Classes and clinics are held by industry guests addressing the current and ever-evolving marketplace for the professional musician.

(MUS-277)

Music Notation 2

1.0 Credit

Students will carry forward the skills and knowledge gained in Music Notation 1. New concepts introduced in level 2 are (but are not limited to) advanced lead sheets, grand-staff master-rhythm parts and concert and/or transposed scores. Instrumentation will vary from rhythm sections to medium-size ensembles (guitar, bass, drums, percussion, strings, horns, and keyboards). Part extraction and transposition will also be introduced in level 2. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Music Notation 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

Course Descriptions: Music Performance

(MUS-279)

Studio Guitar 2

1.0 Credit

This course is a continuation of the concepts discussed in Studio Guitar 1. Students learn practical studio techniques, creativity in the studio, and performance techniques. Subjects include studio equipment, guitar gear, effects and tone production, acoustic guitar performance, microphone placement, as well as layering parts and soloing in the studio. Students are assigned weekly projects to record and submit for critique and evaluation. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and Ensemble Workshop. Prerequisite: Studio Guitar 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-280)

Pop Vocal Workshop

2.0 Credits

Pop Vocal Workshop focuses on the primary repertoire characteristics and authenticity of Pop music of the 60's and 70's. Artists studied include: James Taylor, Carol King, the Everly Brothers, Dusty Springfield, Simon & Garfunkel, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, the Carpenters, Dionne Warwick, Mamas and the Poppas, the Beach Boys, Roy Orbison. This course meets twice per week and includes a vocal repertoire prep lecture. Directly after the lecture, students play the song of the week with professional musician accompanists. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-300)

Photography for Musicians

2.0 Credits

In the Photography for Musicians course students will learn the basic concepts of photography. Topics discussed are how to correctly deal with light, shutter speed and depth of field. Students will also learn about exposure and the photography equipment. This course consists of a weekly two-hour lecture/lab.

(MUS-301)

Junior Recital

1.0 Credit

During their 9th quarter, each Bachelor in Music candidate is required to perform a 30 minute recital. Students will work in their private lesson to plan and perform their recital. The student is responsible for all aspects of the recital (i.e. securing the date and room, hiring the musician accompanists, booking rehearsal time and determining the program).

(MUS-302), (MUS-303)

Music History 1 & 2

2.0 Credits (each)

Each course offers a broad survey of musical masterpieces from the Middle Ages to the Baroque era. Emphasis is on major composers, rhythmic, harmonic and melodic inventions, form, period instruments, secular and sacred music, and listening awareness. This course consists of a weekly lecture.

Performance Ensemble 1, 2 & 3

2.0 Credits (each)

Students rehearse and perform in this faculty directed ensemble. The faculty director will also play in the ensemble, giving the students a firsthand experience of playing with a top professional. The focus is on group dynamic and creative improvisation. Many of these groups will feature repertoire created by the student including original compositions and arrangements alongside well-known standards. This course consists of two weekly, two-hour rehearsals. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-307)

Bass Styles and Analysis 1

1.0 Credit

In this course, students listen and analyze the great contemporary bass players of our time, such as Jaco Pastorius, Victor Wooten, and Pino Palladino. Students will transcribe and perform songs while focusing on playing the parts, time, groove, feel and attitude as the particular artist played them.

(MUS-308)

Extreme Electric Bass

2.0 Credits

This is a unique course which covers the "extreme" approaches (both technical and musical) to electric bass playing by examining contemporary players from a variety of styles. Songs are chosen weekly which exemplify the specific approach of each artist, and then studied and played in an Ensemble Workshop format. Artists covered include: Matt Garrison, Gary Willis, Billy Sheehan, Victor Wooten, Les Claypool, and others. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and Ensemble Workshop(s).

Private Lesson 7, 8 & 9

2.0 Credits (each)

Throughout each level of this course, students meet one hour per week in a one-on-one setting for private instruction. Private lesson instruction is designed to reinforce and compliment the variety of subjects and techniques encountered in the program, as well as to allow the student to explore more specific topics in depth with their instructor. Students are given the opportunity to change private instructors every six months, if so desired. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-312), (MUS-313), (MUS-314)

Big Band 7, 8 & 9

1.0 Credit (each)

The Traditional Big Band ensemble to date, continues to be the standard instrumentation in most live and studio environments globally. The instrumentation may look like a big band, but will sound like everything else. Students will rehearse and perform repertoire that includes but is not limited to: Ellington, Earth, Wind & Fire, Tito Puente and many other traditional and contemporary composers. (MUS-315), (MUS-316)

Drum Styles and Analysis 1 & 2

2.0 Credits (each)

This three-level course focuses on drummers of jazz and modern styles from the mid-20th century to the present day. The main objective is to look at, listen to, and evaluate those drummers who have made considerable contributions to music and drumming. Legendary drummers such as Tony Williams, Jack DeJohnette, Vinnie Colaiuta, Peter Erskine and Bill Stewart are studied. During the Ensemble Workshop portion of the course, students attempt to apply attributes of the drummer being studied to a representative musical composition. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture and Ensemble. Workshop(s). Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-317)

Studio Drums 2

1.0 Credit

Studio Drums 2 continues to address the conditions of the studio workplace while teaching the procedures for drum tuning and playing with click tracks and sequencers. Another major focus is given to chart reading and the creative process of chart and style interpretation. The class also includes instruction in the studio environment for better demonstration and highlights the interactions between producers, songwriters, engineers, and musicians, in the music making process. This course consists of a weekly one or two-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Studio Drums 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-318), (MUS-319), (MUS-320)

Guitar Ensemble 1, 2 & 3

1.0 Credit (each)

The LACM Guitar Ensemble is a small, specialized ensemble, studying and performing guitar literature of various styles and musical periods. This class will develop the student's music reading skills through the practice and performance of technical exercises, reading studies and ensemble pieces written specifically for the guitar. The entire spectrum of music notation is covered, including melodic note reading, chord progressions, rhythmic notation, stylistic interpretation, ensemble development, and analysis of harmonic content for improvisation. The LACM Guitar Ensemble performs a concert at the end of the quarter as well as other events outside of school. This course consists of a weekly two-hour rehearsal. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-321)

Vocal Improvisation 2

1.0 Credit

This course continues building on the concepts learned in Vocal Improvisation 1. Students learn the skills required for students to be able to improvise over chord changes. Vocal Improvisation 1 builds upon knowledge from harmony, theory, ear training, and sight singing courses to develop the ear and voice so students are able to musically express themselves. The course will cover the blues scale and its permutations, tension availability, writing and singing guide tones, motivic development, and improvisation over many standard chord changes in combination with beginner written and oral jazz transcription. Students will interact, improvise, and perform weekly with a live band. This course consists of a weekly two-hour ensemble workshop.

Master Class 7, 8 & 9

0.5 Credits

In this Master Class series, LACM provides a unique unparalleled experience where world-class Artists and Industry Veterans are invited to share their life's work and experiences with our students. Classes and clinics are held by industry guests addressing the current and ever-evolving marketplace for the professional musician.

(MUS-325)

Alexander Technique

1.0 Credit

The Alexander Technique is an educational method teaching how to change faulty postural habits in order to improve mobility, posture, and performance. In this course, students will learn to recognize and release unnecessary tension in order to improve breathing, vocal production, and speed and accuracy of movement. Specific topics to be addressed include: physical mechanics, the stress response and its effect on function and performance, pre-phonatory vocal work, and audition techniques.

(MUS-400), (MUS-401)

Reading Reality 1 & 2

2.0 Credits (each)

This course is designed to give guitarists, bassists, and drummers the real-life experience of producing music from the page - the way countless pros do on the bandstand every day. Students gain this experience by interpreting simple lead sheets and Real Book charts of pop, Latin, Brazilian, and jazz standards at sight, and on the bandstand. The primary goal is to develop the student's fundamental sight-reading ability in live, real-world situations. A secondary but equally important result is for the student to acquire a working knowledge of standard contemporary repertoire in a variety of popular styles. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/ensemble. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-402)

Senior Recital

1.0 Credit

During the 12th quarter, each Bachelor in Music candidate is required to perform a one hour recital. Students will work in their private lesson to plan and perform their recital. Just like the junior recital, the student is responsible for all aspects of the recital (i.e. securing the date and room, hiring the musician accompanists, booking rehearsal time and determining the program).

(MUS-403)

Bass Pedagogy

1.0 Credit

This comprehensive, in-depth class looks at the mechanics and musical thought process of teaching the bass. Students learn the "why" and the "how" as it relates to bass instruction. In other words, Bass Pedagogy is the study of how to teach bass players to teach bass. It contains ideas and techniques to help organize students teaching more efficiently, plus tips on career development as a bass teacher and performer. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-404)

Bass Styles and Analysis 2

1.0 Credit

In this course, students build on the concepts and techniques learned in Bass Styles and Analysis 1. Students listen and analyze the great contemporary bass players of our time, such as Jaco Pastorius, Victor Wooton, and Pino Palladino. Students will transcribe and perform songs while focusing on playing the parts, time, groove, feel and attitude as the particular artist played them.

This comprehensive, in-depth class looks at the mechanics and musical thought process of teaching the guitar. Students learn the “why” and the “how” as it relates to guitar instruction. In other words, Guitar Pedagogy is the study of how to teach guitarists to teach. It contains ideas and techniques to help organize students teaching more efficiently, plus tips on career development as a guitar teacher and performer. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-414)

Guitar Ensemble 4

1.0 Credit

The LACM Guitar Ensemble is a small, specialized ensemble, studying and performing guitar literature of various styles and musical periods. This class will develop the student’s music reading skills through the practice and performance of technical exercises, reading studies and ensemble pieces written specifically for the guitar. The entire spectrum of music notation is covered, including melodic note reading, chord progressions, rhythmic notation, stylistic interpretation, ensemble development, and analysis of harmonic content for improvisation. The LACM Guitar Ensemble performs a concert at the end of the quarter as well as other events outside of school. This course consists of a weekly two-hour rehearsal. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(MUS-415)

Instrumental Point of View

2.0 Credits

This course’s primary focus is on using the voice as an “instrument.” During class students will work on emphasizing tone, singing instrumental lines, solo concepts, and instrumentally based repertoire. This type of singing is used in a variety of musical styles ranging from jazz, rap, hip hop and beyond. The class will feature instrumental guest lecturers who will focus on the vocalist from their own instrumental perspective. Students emerge from this course with increased knowledge, confidence when interacting with instrumentalists, and increased vocal skill, precision and assurance. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture/ensemble.

(MUS-416)

Conducting

1.0 Credit

Many composers in the “real world” choose to conduct their own works. This course teaches students the technique and knowledge needed for successful conducting, as well as provides an opportunity to conduct fellow musicians. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(MUS-417), (MUS-418), (MUS-419)

Master Class

0.5 Credits

In this Master Class series, LACM provides a unique unparalleled experience where world-class Artists and Industry Veterans are invited to share their life’s work and experiences with our students. Classes and clinics are held by industry guests addressing the current and ever-evolving marketplace for the professional musician.

(MUS-420)

Brass/Woodwind Pedagogy

1.0 Credit

This comprehensive, in-depth class looks at the mechanics and musical thought process of teaching the Brass and Woodwind instruments. Students learn the “why” and the “how” as it relates to guitar instruction. In other words, Brass/Woodwind Pedagogy is the study of how to teach musicians to teach. It contains ideas and techniques to help organize students teaching more efficiently, plus tips on career development as a teacher and performer. This course consists of a weekly one-hour lecture.

(MUS-421)

The Business of Contracting and Payroll 1.0 Credit

LACM believes that in a rapidly evolving industry, being “business-minded” is paramount to survival. This course is an introduction to another face of the industry. Contracting and payroll gives you a glimpse at how you can develop the business side of your game.

(MUS-422)

Vocal Pedagogy 1.0 Credit

Music students may want to become instructors in their future professional careers giving purpose to pedagogy. This comprehensive and in-depth course looks at the mechanics of vocals for comprehensive musical teaching processes. Students learn the “why” and the “how” as it relates to their instrument on how to instruct others. Pedagogy is the study of how to teach teaching. It contains ideas and techniques to help organize students to teach effectively in their future career as a music instructor. Career development as a teacher and performer are at the forefront of pedagogy coursework.

(MUS-423)

Drums and Percussion for Vocalists 1.0 Credit

This course is designed to open the world of drums and percussion to vocalists who function as bandleaders, composers, and arrangers. The class addresses drum and percussion techniques basics, functions, grooves, and vocabulary. Students emerge better able to communicate, demonstrate, and arrange grooves for their own music ensembles. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and lab.

MUSIC PRODUCTION

(PROD-100)

Composing for Drama 3.0 Credits

This class is specific to composing for the genre of drama, and explores the style and language needed for this genre. Students examine notable music from the past, as well as what to expect in the future. This course is taught by an expert in the drama field, and includes extensive hands on experience. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-101)

Composing for Comedy 3.0 Credits

This class is specific to composing for the genre of comedy, and explores the style and language needed for this genre. Students examine notable music from the past, as well as what to expect in the future. This course is taught by an expert in the comedy field, and includes extensive hands on experience. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-102)

Conversations with Composers 1 1.0 Credit

This three level course serves to bring students together with working professionals in the field of composition. During class, students are presented the opportunity to see their work, ask questions, and gain knowledge specific to each unique composer. Each composer also discusses his/her approach, technique, and mindset when he/she was creating the scores presented. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-103)

Film Composers In-Depth 2.0 Credits

This class provides students a chance to closely examine the work of a film composer chosen by them. Films will be viewed during class, students will be asked to discuss the composer’s work, and will replicate a piece of his/her score. By examining the music in-depth, students are able to learn exactly how the composer achieved what he/she did. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

(PROD-105)

History of Music in Film & Television 4.0 Credits

This course provides the opportunity to see, study, and discuss the works of composers of the past, as well as many working in the current day. Through these studies, students gain an appreciation of how difficult and rewarding a career in composition may be. This course consists of two, weekly two-hour lectures.

(PROD-106)

Introduction to Working with Picture 2.0 Credits

Given the ever-growing prominence of video in modern media, this course provides students with a basic understanding of the full video production process by teaching “do-it-yourself” video production, beginning with shooting and editing, and concluding with post production. Students also learn about file formats, cameras, lighting, planning, and video/sound editing. By the conclusion of the course, students will produce both a music video and a commercial promoting said music video. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and lab. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-107)

MIDI Production 1 2.0 Credits

Level 1 of this course serves as an introduction to MIDI and virtual instrument-based composition using a digital audio workstation (Pro Tools). Students are taught both the best practices and the workings of MIDI systems, which subsequently lays the groundwork for their own MIDI-based productions. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-108)

Organizing the Workstation 2.0 Credits

It is essential that a composer have as many tools as possible at his/her disposal so that nothing impedes the creative process. This class focuses on all that may be accomplished with a well-organized workstation, including editing, recording, and notation, as well as selecting a palette of instruments that will provide the sounds needed. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and lab. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-109)

Pro Tools 100 4.0 Credits

In Pro Tools 100 students explore introductory level Pro Tools hardware and software functionality while studying the supplementary coursework provided. Through studying the basic Pro Tools principles, students gain the skills needed to complete a Pro Tools project from initial set up to final mix-down. Whether the project involves recording live instruments, MIDI sequencing of software synthesizers, or audio looping, this course provides the basic skills needed to succeed. At the conclusion of this course students will be given the official Pro Tools 100 certification exams. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and four-hours of lab time. This course may be taken as an elective.

Course Descriptions: Music Production

(PROD-110)

Pro Tools 110

4.0 Credits

Pro Tools 110 continues building on the concepts learned in Pro Tools 100. Students focus on the key concepts and skills needed to operate a Pro Tools system, and provides the foundation for later post-production courses within the program. At the conclusion of both levels, students will be given the official Pro Tools 100 and 110 certification exams. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and four-hours of lab time. Prerequisite: Pro Tools 100. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-111), (PROD-112)

Working with Picture/Applied Techniques 1 & 2

3.0 Credits

This three level course provides students with the chance to learn and experience the nuance and craft of writing for film. In levels 1 & 2, students are given a variety of films and television shows to compose for, while having a working professional guide them and provide constructive criticism of their work. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-113)

Introduction to Signal Processing

3.0 Credits

A successful producer must truly know the tools used in production, and this course introduces students to the primary building blocks used in signal processing. Topics include compression/limiting, reverb, pitch-based effects, and delay/echo. This course consists of a weekly, three-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-114)

Drum Private Lesson

2.0 Credits

This course serves as an accompaniment to the "Drums for Producers 1" course, and aims to create a physical understanding of the act of playing drums and percussion. Students work on core drumming concepts during weekly private lessons with a LACM drum instructor. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson.

(PROD-115)

Drums for Producers

1.0 Credit

This course focuses on the skills needed for producers to communicate/convey their ideas to a drummer. Students learn drumming vocabulary, tuning, and recording techniques, as well as drum set technique basics, functions, and grooves. The course aims for students to emerge better able to communicate, demonstrate and compose drum parts. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture.

(PROD-116)

Advanced Signal Processing

3.0 Credits

Building on the skills learned in "Introduction to Signal Processing," this course delves even deeper into the world of signal processing. Students explore matrixed effects, specialty-use devices and plugins, and creating soundscapes. This course consists of a weekly, three-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-117)

Microphone Technology and Technique

1.5 Credits

This course introduces students to the world of microphone technology and technique. Topics include the various classes of microphones, their construction and application, and how to achieve the desired results from various acoustic sources. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and lab. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-118)

MIDI Production 2

2.0 Credits

MIDI Production 2 digs even deeper into the world of computer MIDI-based production. This level focuses on advanced MIDI editing, routing and creating multi/stacks, and synth programming. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and two-hour lab. Prerequisite: MIDI Production 1. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-119)

Performance Editing

2.0 Credits

The goal of this course is to teach techniques for editing of musical performances, specifically singing, drumming, and guitar playing. The focus will be on vocal and drum editing, using Melodyne, Auto Tune, and Beat Detective. Students will develop editing skills that allow them to deliver interventions ranging from the subtle to the very processed. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

(PROD-120)

Production Styles and Genres

2.0 Credits

Just as an instrumentalist must be familiar with various styles and techniques, so must a producer know different production styles and genres. With that goal in mind, this course analyzes commercial recorded musical examples in a variety of different musical and production styles, providing both the background necessary to emulate these styles and the information necessary to blaze new territory. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-121)

Producers Survival Skills

2.0 Credits

This course teaches essential skills for the modern producer. Topics covered include techniques for troubleshooting, cabling/wiring, and an introduction to basic soldering and simple electronics. Also included are the internal workings of computers and hard drives, small studio ergonomics and design, speaker choice and placement, room treatment, and the concepts of maintaining a recording/production environment. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

(PROD-122)

Strings for Producers

1.0 Credit

This course provides the skills needed for producers to communicate/convey their ideas to a guitarist, as well as teaches the basics of guitar and bass playing. Topics include technique, strumming, chords, slapping and finger picking. Special emphasis is placed on obtaining the skills necessary for songwriting, arranging and recording. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture.

(PROD-123)

Vocals for Producers

1.0 Credit

This class is designed to help students develop their vocal skills, as well as gain the knowledge needed to successfully work with singers in a recording setting. In addition, students study vocal technique and qualities of sound. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture.

(PROD-124)

Vocal Private Lesson

2.0 Credits

This course serves as an accompaniment to the “Vocals for Producers 1” class, and aims at creating a physical understanding of the act of singing. Students work on core vocal concepts during weekly private lessons with a LACM voice instructor. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson.

(PROD-125)

Engineering for Producers 1

4.0 Credits

As we move further into the new millennium, it has become increasingly more important that producers know how to engineer properly. Oftentimes they may be the only engineer available on a project, or they may be in a situation where modern technology allows recording remotely from a different continent. Level 1 of this course begins the recording technology discussion, while Level 2 delves deeper into the subject by studying complex signal processing, multing tricks and techniques, and sound replacement/augmentation. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture, and two-hour lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-126)

Strings Private Lesson

2.0 Credits

This course serves as an accompaniment to the “Strings for Producers 1” class, and aims at creating a physical understanding of the act of playing guitar and bass. Students study guitar for half of the course with a LACM guitar instructor, and the other half of the course studying bass with a LACM bass instructor. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson.

(PROD-200)

Augmenting Your Score

3.0 Credits

When you have written all there is to be written and you are done orchestrating, you come down to the finishing touches of your musical endeavor. Sometimes the little things can have the greatest impact. Adding different guitar parts, percussion passes, or synth sounds can bring a production to a different level, adding intimacy or energy to a scene with just a light touch. In this course, students experiment with the vast array of ways to do accomplish this. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-201)

Counterpoint

2.0 Credits

It is important for an underscore to be created to serve the scene. At times the music is thematic and carries an entire scene, but more often than not it is played under dialog and must not get in the way. At these times, the composer may use inner voices and movement to create interest and movement. During this course students study scores and classical examples, as well as create music that makes use of the techniques studied. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

(PROD-202), (PROD-203)

Conversations with Composers 2 & 3

1.0 Credit (each)

These final two courses bring students together with working professionals in the field of composition. During class, students are presented the opportunity to see their work, ask questions, and gain knowledge specific to each unique composer. Each composer also discusses his/her approach, technique, and mindset when he/she was creating the scores presented. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-204)

Composing for Video Games

3.0 Credits

This class is specific to composing for the genre of video games, and explores the style and language needed for this genre. Students examine notable music from the past, as well as what to expect in the future. This course is taught by an expert in the video games field, and includes extensive hands on experience. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-205)

Music Editing

2.0 Credits

This course primarily focuses on technique, but also provides a creative look at how to solve musical problems. Many times composers must deal with last minute changes to scenes. In this situation, and if there is no music editor provided for the project, being able to deal with these problems is an invaluable tool for composers. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-207)

Electronic Film Scoring

3.0 Credits

Some writing projects simply do not have the budget to pay for musicians. In these instances, the composer must be able to create a convincing, moving score by himself/herself. This class explores successful electronic writing, and allows students to create works using the concepts and techniques studied. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-208), (PROD-209)

Independent Project: Working with a Director 1 & 2

3.0 Credits

This course provides students with the chance to work with a young director on a film project. This is the opportunity for students to apply everything they have studied, to create a film score, and to have the opportunity to collaborate with another artist. This course consists of independent study. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-210)

Composing a Music Library

4.0 Credits

During this course, students are guided through the process of writing and presenting musical compositions which may then be added to the LACM MUSIC library – the recorded music division of Los Angeles College of Music. LACM MUSIC works as the administrator to expose and place songs within the catalogue, which is comprised exclusively of alumni and faculty of the college. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-211)

Orchestration Techniques for Film

2.0 Credits

Keeping a score interesting, while not getting in the way of the film or dialog, requires a knowledge of how to use instruments in the most effective way for the film. This class provides students with the opportunity to explore different scores from an orchestrator's point of view, and to experiment with different techniques to make the most cinematically effective use of the orchestra. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture.

Course Descriptions: Music Production

(PROD-212)

Production Styles for Composers

3.0 Credits

Each genre and each score must be true to itself and the film it must serve. The composer must accurately present the score, whether it is a small acoustic score, electronic, or large ensemble. This course explores the relationship between content and production. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-213)

Working with Picture/Applied Techniques 3

3.0 Credits

The final course in the series provides students with the chance to learn and experience the nuance and craft of writing for film. Students are given a variety of films and television shows to compose for, while having a working professional guide them and provide constructive criticism of their work. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-214)

Introduction to DJ Techniques

1.5 Credits

Despite historical delegitimization of DJ-ing as a musical art, DJ-style music and techniques have evolved to the point where they are now a respected part of mainstream production. This course teaches the basics of using finished mixes and samples to create an effective DJ-style production. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and lab. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-215)

Drum Programming and Analysis

2.0 Credits

This course studies and analyzes both human-played and electronic-recorded drum performances, and teaches the elements necessary to create an effective programmed drum track. Both electronic music (e.g. dance, house) and traditional music (e.g. rock, country, R&B, pop) are explored, and students learn to create their own recorded performances. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture and two-hour lab. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-216)

Engineering for Producers 2

4.0 Credits

As we move further into the new millennium, it has become increasingly more important that producers know how to engineer properly. Oftentimes they may be the only engineer available on a project, or they may be in a situation where modern technology allows recording remotely from a different continent. Engineering for Producers 2 delves deeper into the subject by studying complex signal processing, multing tricks and techniques, and sound replacement/augmentation. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture, and two-hour lab. Prerequisite: Engineering for Producers 1.

(PROD-217)

Fundamentals of Synthesis

2.0 Credits

The true strength of synthesizers is their ability to have their sound tailored to best suit any musical situation. Students will move beyond the “hunt-for-an-acceptable-preset” and learn first-hand how to unlock the true potential of the instrument. From the classic analog subtractive synth of yesterday to the computer based virtual instruments of today, this course will review the various synthesis engines, their strengths, and applications within music production. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture, and one two-hour lab.

(PROD-218), (PROD-219)

History of Production 1 & 2

1.5 Credits

By tracking the birth and development of sound recording and playback technologies, the first level of this course provides the springboard to discuss and analyze the parallel evolution of the producer and his/her many roles in the process of crafting music. During the second level, students focus on the rise of the producer from a “behind-the-scenes facilitator” to an increasing spot in the limelight. This course consists of a weekly, 1.5-hour lecture. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course. Each course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-220), (PROD-221), (PROD-222)

Private Lesson 1, 2 & 3

2.0 Credits (each)

During quarters four, five, and six, students are given the opportunity to work one-on-one with an instructor of their choice. Students may choose to continue studying drums, string instruments, or vocals, or may decide to further develop their skills in engineering or songwriting. This flexibility gives music producing and engineering students the power to choose the direction of their studies in senior quarters. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-223)

The Laws of Parts: Arranging for Producers

1.0 Credit

This course focuses on arranging from the perspective of creating an effective recorded production. Analysis of parts and elements, from both older and more recent recordings, are used to demonstrate how best to approach the building of a successful production. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour lecture. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-224)

Fundamentals of Audio Mixing

3.0 Credits

Pop music has become more perfect than ever, and a modern producer needs to know how to use technology to correct or modify the pitch of a voice or instrument. This course explores various methods ranging from the gentle/non-invasive to more drastic methods, giving each producer the tools to be effective in both reparative and creative uses. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-225)

Music Production with Found Objects

1.0 Credit

This course focuses on creating musical productions using only found musical sounds. As no virtual instruments or commercial samples are allowed in this class, students are forced to listen to everything in their environment for sonic and tonal inspiration. The next step is to capture and manipulate those sounds into a successful production. This course may be taken as an elective.

(PROD-226), (PROD-227), (PROD-228)

Producing Other People 1, 2 & 3

3.0 Credits (each)

Producing other artists requires an altogether different set of skills than working alone. In this three-level course, students learn how to manage the process of producing someone else, as both the producer and the engineer/producer. Topics include creating conducive environments, managing multiple people at once, headphone mixes and their resulting effects, the application of songwriting class work, and motivational techniques. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-229)

Final Project

3.0 Credits

Each Associate of Arts in Music Production candidate is required to present a 3-song originally composed, produced and recorded project to a panel of faculty and music industry professionals. Students will work in their private lesson and in other applicable courses to plan their project. This project will be presented on the LACM campus in a recording studio setting.

(PROD-300)

Fundamentals of Audio Mixing 2

2.0 Credits

Fundamental of Audio Mixing 2 explores different genre-specific mixing approaches and introduces more advanced techniques (e.g. master buss processing, etc.). Students will study advanced sonic stamp with in-depth comparisons of microphones, mic pre-amps, and amplifiers, as well as stereo mic configurations. Students will learn to monitor and apply critical listening to their mixes, be able to add character to the mix by using "Lo-Fi" techniques, use multi-band compression in mastering. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Audio Mixing 1.

(PROD-301), (PROD-302), (PROD-303)

Private Lesson 4, 5 & 6

2.0 Credits (each)

Students are given the opportunity to work one-on-one with an instructor of their choice. Students may choose to continue studying drums, string instruments, or vocals, or may decide to further develop their skills in engineering or songwriting. This flexibility gives music producing and engineering students the power to choose the direction of their studies in senior quarters. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-304)

Intro to Post Production

2.0 Credits

Students will learn and experience the basic building blocks of audio post-production for picture. Audio sweetening, Foley, FX editing, and an introduction to mixing in surround are all included topics. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab.

(PROD-305)

Junior Project

3.0 Credits

Each Bachelor in Music Production candidate is required to present a 3-song originally composed, produced and recorded project to a panel of faculty and music industry professionals. Students will work in their private lesson and in other applicable courses to plan their project. This project will be presented on the LACM campus in a recording studio setting.

(PROD-400), (PROD-401)

Live Ensemble Recording 1 & 2

2.0 Credits (each)

In this two level course, students will collaborate to record live performances and deliver mixes of their recordings. Due to the highly varied nature of performances given throughout the year students will gain vital insight into recording different instrument groupings and ensembles. This course consists of a weekly, two-hour lecture and lab. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-402), (PROD-403), (PROD-404)

Private Lesson 7, 8, & 9

2.0 Credits (each)

During quarters ten, eleven and twelve, students are given the opportunity to work one-on-one with an instructor of their choice. Students may choose to continue studying drums, string instruments, or vocals, or may decide to further develop their skills in engineering or songwriting. This flexibility gives music producing and engineering students the power to choose the direction of their studies in senior quarters. This course consists of a weekly, one-hour private lesson. Prerequisite: Students must complete each level in order to continue into the subsequent level of the course.

(PROD-405)

Senior Project

3.0 Credits

Each Bachelor in Music Production candidate is required to present a 6-song originally composed, produced and recorded project (EP) with requisite digital materials (EP cover design, bio of composer(s)/producer(s) and general description of project) to a panel of faculty and music industry professionals. Students will work in their private lesson and in other applicable courses to plan their project. This project will be presented on the LACM campus in a recording studio setting.

LACM DEPARTMENT CHAIRSJERRY WATTS, JR.,
Bass Department Chair

TONY SHOGREN

Drum Department

In his early years, Tony had the fortune of a classical musical environment. Through the aid of his trumpeter father, he became a percussionist in the Merced Symphony Orchestra just before his twelfth birthday. By the time he had reached his university education in Fresno, CA, he was a professional playing and recording drums in popular music and jazz. In 1989, he began to work in the Los Angeles-Brazilian music scene and eventually forming the world-class group Sambaguru with Kátia Moraes. In 2000, he began a tour with the Brazilian musical legend Sergio Mendes and Brazil 2000. His informal introduction to colonial music came to fruition with his time living in Peru and visiting Brazil. Working on creating the various musical aspects of the feature film “Woman on Top” for Fox Searchlight Films, gave him the musical understanding to finally score a short for “Gladiator” famed CG Producer, Scott Anderson. Shogren’s work in film composition inspired change into a larger compositional world. In 2007 Anthony achieved a B.M. degree and in 2010 an M.M. degree in composition from CSULA. In academia he forged a solid foundation in writing program music. Awards include the Valley Symphony Orchestra Thirteenth Annual Composers Competition as well as the world premiere of “Zona Amazona” of the “Zonas” program. Shogren’s drive to jump full-force back into the live playing scene came at a time of industry strife. His full effort concentrated primarily on his love of Afro-Caribbean styles. He maintains a full playing schedule as timbalero (timbales player) with the Susie Hansen Latin band. Meanwhile, the creative composer/producer launches the Latin big band project, Tumbao 21. The collaborative project is projected to debut in March 2014. Shogren’s mission is to contribute a lasting understanding of lesser-known music cultures. He strives to bring to American people (North, Central and South) cultural awareness through composition, live performance, sound recordings and cinema.

Vocal / General Music Departments

Dawn Bishop graduated with a degree in Commercial Arranging from Berklee College of Music, where arranger Richard Evans and jazz vocalist Maggie Scott served as Dawn's mentors. Shortly after finishing at Berklee, Ms. Bishop relocated to Los Angeles, California. She has been involved in music ever since, performing as vocalist, songwriter, arranger, and com-poser. Although she is a woman with a busy schedule, Dawn continues to perform and record with a variety of international and local artists. Most of all, she enjoys leading her own group. She has performed with Sergio Mendes, Don Grusin, Bill Cunliffe, Gerald Albright, Alex Acuna, the Black-Eyed Peas, Ledisi, Brian McKnight, Patti Austin, Deniece Williams, Michael Paulo, Harvey Mason, India.Arie, John Legend, and Engelbert Humperdinck. Ms. Bishop recently provided backing vocals on Sal Santana's (son of Carlos Santana) CD entitled Keyboard City. She was a member of the Hollywood Film Chorale on the Academy Awards in 2008, along with singing in the Sound FX choir for the NBA Playoff commercials later that same year. Her vocals have also been featured on tracks for both television and film.

KACEE CLANTON

Vocal Department

After studying at a classical conservatory, this Northern California native packed her heart and soul and everything else she owned into a truck bound for Los Angeles and the freedom it offered. Kacee wrote, produced and released her debut CD Seeing Red in 1996. Shortly after, her career branched out into modeling, acting, and commercial work as a singer, writer and producer. In the summer of 2001, she was cast in the role of a lifetime: playing the lead in Off-Broadway's Love, Janis, an extreme rock musical about the life and music of legendary singer Janis Joplin. In early 2002, she was asked to join Big Brother & The Holding Co., Joplin's original San Francisco-based band, as their lead vocalist. She continued in both of these capacities as time permitted for nearly a decade. In 2005, Kacee joined forces with rock icon Joe Cocker as a background singer on his Heart & Soul world tour. In early 2008, she completed a second world tour to support his CD release Hymn For My Soul. Her sophomore recording effort Mama Came To Sing was released in 2005. Kacee was honored to join the LACM faculty in 2008 as a vocal and performance instructor. She has been instrumental in designing both the performance program and rock division of the vocal department. Kacee began singing behind the incomparable Luis Miguel in 2008, serving as section leader, choreographer and stylist until 2012. She also stays busy as a private vocal/ performance coach, producer and arranger, and writes for film and TV.

LYNN FANELLI

Vocal Department

Lynn Fanelli began her singing career at the tender age of 5 years old when she performed with her father on his record release. She has recorded and toured with Delaney Bramlett, who taught George Harrison to play slide guitar and Eric Clapton to sing and produced Clapton's first album. She was on staff with record producer Ray Ruff at Oak Records, recording and arranging vocals for all of their country artists. While with this label, she sang background vocals and created vocal arrangements for Pat Boone's CD Ready to Rock, among others. She toured with movie actress Connie Stevens, sang with The National In Choir on the Oasis CD Dig Out Your Soul in 2008. She has toured, recorded and/or performed with Hal David, Jon Bon Jovi, Wild Cherry, Terry Ilous, Spencer Davis, Percy Sledge, Deniece Williams, Billy Paul and Taste of Honey, among many others. She has recorded with many renowned producers, among them Jim Steinman (Meatloaf) and Giorgio Moroder (Blondie) and David Briggs (Neil Young). Her voice has been heard on national jingles and television and movie soundtracks such as Nickelodeon, Melrose Place, Days of Our Lives, and Elvira, Mistress of the Dark, among others. Most recently, Lynn performed with Jackie DeShannon on the heels of DeShannon's 2010 induction into the Songwriters' Hall of Fame. She was on board in the vocal section for DeShannon's recorded performance for the Grammy archives in 2012.

CARRAH FLAHIVE

Vocal Department

An LA native, Carrah Flahive grew up in a musical family singing in an acclaimed children's choir with whom she toured Europe five times and recorded an album as a featured soloist. She then continued her music and theatre education at LA County High School for the Arts. After studying jazz and contemporary music at LA College of Music, Carrah moved to São Paulo, Brazil to study Portuguese and Brazilian music. For two years, she sang with some of the country's finest musicians, gigging nightly and recording a solo album with guest performances by Latin Grammy-winning composer Ivan Lins and world renowned pianist André Mehmari. After returning to Los Angeles, she joined the LA Master Chorale and is grateful for the privilege of singing with some of the finest musicians in the industry. Recent highlights include performing Frank Zappa's 200 Motels for the 10th Anniversary Celebration of Disney Hall, singing soprano film score queues, and jamming with fellow jazz musicians around town.

KAREN HAMMACK

Vocal Department

Karen Hammack is a native Californian and a second generation musician. Her father, Bobby Hammack, was a studio pianist and arranger so Karen's talents came by her naturally. Karen has performed and recorded with Michael McDonald, Bill Frisell, Greg Leisz, Jackson Brown, Perla Batalla, Niki Haris, Tierney Sutton, Kate McGarry, Eric Marienthal, Vinnie Colaiuta, and Julie Christensen, to name a few. She has toured Europe playing jazz festivals with Niki Haris and has played Royce Hall and the Kennedy Center with Perla Batalla. Having all these influences, Karen began writing in a highly intimate and personal style which has become her latest recording My Beating Heart. Karen is already hard at work on several new projects and continues to compose, arrange, perform, teach and record.

CAROL HATCHETT

Vocal Department

Carol Hatchett is a singer, songwriter, dancer, actress, and choreographer currently residing in Los Angeles since moving west from her native Chicago, Illinois. Carol was one of the infamous “Harlettes”, Bette Midler’s backup singer/dancers, touring across the country and appearing in Bette’s Emmy Award winning Diva Las Vegas HBO Special. She has been featured in the films Ali, Legally Blonde, and Legally Blonde 2: Red, White & Blonde and has worked with recording artists Beyonce Knowles, Kenny “Babyface” Edmonds, Brian McKnight, and Monica. She has also recorded with composer/ recording artist Stanley Clarke and Dave Stewart, choreographed for musician/recording artist Sheila E. and Snoop Dogg, worked with directors Tom Hanks, Debbie Allen, P.J. Hogan and choreographers Toni Basil and Fatima Robinson. Carol was also nominated as “Featured Actress in a Musical” by the LA Stage Alliance Ovation Awards and performed in “The Showgirl Must Go On” with Bette Midler at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas. She has recently released an EP of original dance music with The Bareroot.

TERESA JAMES

Vocal Department

Growing up in Texas, Teresa James started singing and playing piano at a very young age and has been performing ever since. With her band, the Rhythm Tramps, she has toured throughout the US and Europe and has released 8 CDs, receiving a nomination from the Blues Foundation for Contemporary Female Blues Artist of the Year in 2008 and an Independent Music Award nomination in 2010. In addition to working with her band, she has sung for many films and TV shows, including Toy Story 3, Runaway Jury, Hole, The Simpsons, Ellen, Step By Step, to name just a few. She can also be heard singing with Reba McEntyre on the theme to her television show Reba. As a professional session singer, Teresa has also been featured on commercials (for McDonald’s, Barbie, Michelob, etc.) and works regularly in the studio with Burt Bacharach, Barry Mann and Cynthia Weil, Steve Dorff, and many others. She has served as a studio coach for many other professional singers and actors, including Andie McDowell, Tommy Castro and the Radio City Rockettes. Some of the artists that she has toured or recorded with include Randy Newman, Bill Medley, Neil Diamond, Eric Burdon, Spencer Davis, Peter Gallagher and others (including a duet with Mickey Mouse). For more info, please visit Teresa’s website at www.teresajames.com.

SARA LEIB

Vocal Department

An accomplished jazz vocalist, Sara Leib has toured the U.S., Japan, Guatemala, and South Africa, and has shared the stage with the likes of Taylor Eigsti, Art Lande, and Hiromi. She has also sung for the WB, Hum Music, the N Network, the NBA, and on the Academy Awards. Sara also teaches at World Mission University and the University of Southern California. Musically educated at the Berklee College of Music, New England Conservatory, and USC, Sara subscribes to the idea that a musician should strive to be an artist, teacher and a scholar, and she attempts to learn something new every day. She has given master classes in jazz vocal improvisation internationally, twice served as a panelist for the NARAS Foundation’s Grammy in the Schools, and can currently be heard as the voice of an airing Coffee mate commercial. In her spare time, Sara enjoys food, wine, travel, and collecting tribal art.

DANI PALOMINO

Vocal Department

Dani Palomino first caught the music bug at age eight when an uncle introduced her to the rock group KISS. Face painting, guitar lessons, and talent shows followed until she discovered her true instrument — voice. Under the direction of Dr. Arthur LA Pierre, Dani learned the basics of vocal technique. She continued to study voice and music theory while earning her bachelor’s degree in creative writing from the University of Pennsylvania. In 1991, she released a CD with Philadelphia-based blues band Soul City. In recent years, Dani has studied with Sunny Wilkinson, Kevyn Lettau, Helen McComas, and Bill Brendle. She has recorded for Zenasia International (a company that produces karaoke/sing-along tapes) and with Katia Moraes and Sambaguru, a Brazilian band based in Los Angeles. Dani is an ardent student of American roots music (blues, gospel, hillbilly and jazz) and is currently writing/recording material that explores these genres.

ROGER TREECE
Songwriting / Vocal Departments

Roger Treece designs musical experience: composing, arranging, producing, engineering, singing, and teaching. His most ambitious project to date is the 2010 album Vocabularies, for which he composed, orchestrated, recorded, and edited seven compositions for voices, percussion, and virtual & acoustic orchestra. Inspired by the work of Bobby McFerrin and performed by Roger, McFerrin and 50 musicians from around the world, Vocabularies was nominated for three Grammy awards in 2010. As a composer, Treece has been commissioned by musical organizations worldwide, including the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, The United Arab Emirates Ministry of Culture, the Danish Radio Symphony and Choir, the Los Angeles Master Chorale, and the Chicago Children's Choir. His film and television credits include music for the Discovery Channel, Disneyworld, Microsoft, McDonalds, ABC, and The United Way; and is author and singer of hundreds of commercials. His arranging, production, and engineering for artists such as the Manhattan Transfer, Bobby McFerrin, SMASH's Katherine McPhee, Barry Manilow, the New York Voices, the King's Singers, and jazz legend Mark Murphy have earned him five Grammy nominations, 14 Downbeat awards and a First at the Hollywood Film Festival. Treece has also written hundreds of works for high school and college-level choir, orchestra, jazz band and chamber ensemble, many of which are published through Hal Leonard, the UNC Jazz Press, Edition Ferrimontana and Lindalamama. His Circle Songs curriculum, a program of study for singers and choral groups which combines composition, arranging, rhythm, and conducting into one integrated exercise, has been adopted for implementation into the curriculum of the Royal Danish Academy of Music.

GENERAL EDUCATION

JENNIFER AVILA
General Education Department

Jennifer Avila has taught various writing and composition courses at the University of California, Riverside for the last five years — it was at UCR where she is finishing her Ph.D. in English with a dissertation focused on the interdisciplinary ways in which sport functions in 20th century American literature/art and Latina/o literature/art. She has also taught writing, literature, and college research/study skills at University of the West in Rosemead, CA. She completed her Bachelor's and Master's degree in English at California State University, Los Angeles and received her Associate of Arts degree at Pasadena City College. She is very excited to be a part of the music community at LACM. She grew up with and currently has many immediate family members immersed in the music world. Music is a very familiar place for Jennifer and her constant exposure to music throughout her life has created beneficial outcomes toward her teaching career.

CASSANDRA COHEN
General Education Department

It is in Cassie Cohen's nature to connect to nature. As an artist, she is always in a constant search for a collective narrative, what connects us a species, and those voices that make us human. She believes there is so much art that has been made already, in painting, in literature, and in music, that our stories and experiences and these works of art can inform each other and create a foundation for describing a shared human experience. "Throughout history, artists, philosophers, and all inquisitive minds have used the artistic expressions of others to launch their own creativity. There are thousands of more connections to be made, linking us all together. By studying the art of any culture, you gain insight into their personal histories, even beyond current events and factual happenings, and find that these are interpretations and records of an experience that unite us as artists in the constant search of expression." As a teacher, Cassie serves as a guide through many of these works and narratives while the students apply the knowledge to their own existence and their own search. Cassie graduated from Rhode Island School of Design in 2010 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Illustration. She believes it is most beneficial to an artist to broaden their knowledge of the world around them. Cassie brings an exciting, creative, and innovative practice to general education course work at LACM. "At this point in our lives, it becomes even more important to be able to express ourselves and communicate well with others. I want to be a part of the shared experiences and to guide the next set of creative minds through finding and making really great work!"

RAELYNN GARCIA
General Education Department

RaeLynn Garcia graduated from Cal Poly Pomona with a B.S. in Applied Mathematics in 2008 and an M.S. in 2010 where she earned a 3.92 GPA. She worked as a substitute teacher for Ontario Montclair School district from 2007-2010. Summer of 2010, she taught at ACI Institute in Diamond Bar, teaching algebra classes. Summers of 2009 and 2010, she also taught for the PAGE (Pre-Algebra, Algebra, Geometry, and Enrichment) program at Citrus College. She started teaching at Chaffey Community College and Whittier College in fall 2011. She continues to teach pre-algebra, beginning algebra, intermediate algebra, college algebra, and quantitative reasoning. RaeLynn is still an adjunct at Chaffey College and has always been an employee at Stater Brothers Markets throughout teaching and attending college. Rae- Lynn is dedicated, multi-tasking, and an inspiring teacher for LACM and exemplifies what it means to work hard, challenge yourself, and never give up on your passion!

CLEMENS KOWNATZKI
General Education / General Music Department

Clemens Kownatzki has been a finance executive and market practitioner for two decades. His work in international capital markets gave him unique insights into the world of finance. He is also an experienced and passionate musician of many years; he graduated from Musician's Institute in 1987 and was nominated Outstanding Guitar Player of the Year. As a financial expert as well as a musician, he can relate to the world of finance from an artist's perspective and is therefore uniquely qualified to teach personal finance in a way that makes sense to someone who has little or no experience with money matters. His book, Money Music 101, has been the foundation for a personal finance class at LACM tailored to musicians. Clemens earned his MBA degree from the Graziadio School of Business at Pepperdine University and is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in Economics at Claremont Graduate University. He lives in California with his wife and two children.
